Followership
Leadership.....influencing others

Followership.....seeking or accepting influence
One Detail....

Success usually the result of good followership rather than just great leadership
People do not like to describe themselves as a follower
Respect & support the values of good followership
Role Models....

People who influenced us

History

Contemporary
#1

Tell the Truth
Support Don’t Blame
Coach by Asking Questions
Give the Benefit of the Doubt
#5

Keep the Information Flowing
“If you believe that a lack of position or authority prevents you from leading effectively, it is time to rethink your understanding of leadership”

Leading from the Second Chair
Bonem & Patterson, 2005
Learn More

Followership Learning Community
International Leadership Association
www.ila-net.org
Garry Briese
gbriese@brieseandassociates.com