In addition to this form, applicants must supply the University of Delaware with:
1) Original transcripts/examination results for all secondary and post-secondary work (or copies attested by the U.S. Embassy, a notary public, or a school official) and 2) an academic evaluation and English translation of most coursework completed in another country. International and IB secondary schools may be exempt. For more information regarding evaluation exemptions, please e-mail international-admissions@udel.edu. (Please note that transfer students should also submit syllabi from coursework completed at previous institutions in order to be eligible for receiving credit toward your University of Delaware degree.)

You must submit your academic credentials for evaluation to one of the following organizations. We must receive ORIGINAL Credential Evaluations or files directly from the organization completing the evaluation on your behalf:

1. a member of the National Association of Credential Evaluation Services (NACES), OR
2. the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers (AACRAO). Freshman applicants should request the Basic Statement of Comparability Evaluation and Transfer applicants should request the Course-by-Course Evaluation.
