

Summary

This curriculum unit focuses on fostering language acquisition in dual identified ELLs (English Language Learners) in a high poverty Elementary school. These students worked on creating oral storytelling projects that they would record so they could listen to progress in their acquisition of the English language. Extensions are available so students who are more advanced ELLs can use the recordings to create written works, both fiction and non-fiction.