Student volunteers needed!

Help make this year’s Artfest celebration a success by volunteering to support individuals with disabilities as they express themselves through a variety of art projects!

What you’ll do: You and other UD student volunteers will assist Artfest participants, help with registration and lend a hand setting up and cleaning up. You’ll love every minute you devote to Artfest, if you’re like past volunteers of the Center for Disabilities Studies-sponsored event.

Where you’ll be: Artfest will be held Oct. 25 at the New Castle County Absalom Jones Community Center, 310 Kiamensi Rd., in Newport, Delaware. Plan to arrive at 10 a.m. and stay till 2 p.m.

How to register: Complete the online registration form here, or contact Audrey Rossi at 302-831-3632 or at ajrossi@udel.edu. The deadline to register is Oct. 17.

Join us!

Artfest is made possible through the collaboration of the Center for Disabilities Studies and Art Therapy Express.
