Does this sound like you?

Are you:
○ a young adult living with a disability?
○ a resident of the State of Delaware?
○ interested in exploring continuing education and employment?

And are you committed to:
○ living more independently?
○ working with others to pursue your goals?
○ getting involved in your community?
○ being responsible for your own decisions and actions?

If you answered YES to all of these questions, then the TOTAL LIFE PROJECT might be right for YOU!
