Who is eligible:
• You must attend a high school approved by the Chinese Ministry of Education
• Submit a certified letter in English (or in Chinese with the English translation) from your high school showing your expected graduation date
• Complete the 11th grade in China before applying for conditional admission to UD

While participating in Academic Transitions, you will work to meet all the program requirements. After you complete all Academic Transitions requirements and submit your high school diploma, you will begin to attend the University of Delaware full time.
