English Through the News
L/S Level V

Barbara K. Gillette
English Language Institute
Target Audience

L/S level V students wishing to improve their listening strategies, oral fluency and pronunciation skills by learning from the best newscasters on television
Recent Topics

• What does North Korea want? (U.D. lecture)
• U.S. kids getting obsessed with soccer (video)
• What is Islam? (student panel discussion)
• Divorce in the U.S. (video and role play)
• How to lower stress (student health news report)
• The Obamas at the White House (video and team report)
• Buying habits in the new economy (survey and video)
Benefits to the Student

Listening
- Daily practice with ideal models
- Better listening strategies
- Increased comprehension

Speaking
- Practice in a relaxed atmosphere with a variety of topics
- Numerous different formats
- Subjects chosen by the instructor and you
Additional Benefits

Pronunciation
Learn how to “speak like an American,” using correct stress, rhythm and intonation.

Culture
Become a citizen of the world by learning about global issues. Investigate local trends and report on them.
Requirements

• An open mind
• Your eagerness to improve
• Our textbook:
  Focus on Pronunciation 3