Academic Critical Reading and Writing Level VI (ACRW) is designed for students who have been through RWEAPVI twice and whose grammar weaknesses are affecting writing and reading, preventing them from meeting CAP standards. This course will aggressively pursue thorough understanding of grammar and accurate production in writing as well as understanding of its implications in reading.