The ELI director, faculty, and staff all wish to welcome you to the University of Delaware English Language Institute (ELI)!

- That you will complete all of your work to the best of your ability;
- That you attend all ELI academic classes on time every day, and participate in class activities;
- That you will make every effort to join cultural activities to increase your awareness of the United States, make new friends and improve your English;
- That you will work hard to achieve your goal, whatever it might be;
- That you will speak English in and out of the class.

Please remember that we are here to help you. We will challenge you and give you much work, but we will also help you with problems, and offer our friendship.

We hope you find your time at the ELI useful, rewarding and enjoyable.

Dr. Scott G. Stevens
Director, English Language Institute

Mission Statement

(m noun) something that states the purpose or goal of a business or organization

Through an unwavering commitment to excellence and renewal, the ELI faculty and staff endeavor each day to enhance our reputation as a leader among intensive English programs. Our leadership is based on a clear understanding of our goals and the means to achieve them.

As teachers, tutors, administrators and staff, we strive to:

- Meet or exceed our students’ expectations for developing their linguistic, academic and professional skills.
- Contribute to international understanding by engaging students in meaningful intercultural exploration.
- Provide our students with the support and services they require to make the transition from their own countries to life in the United States.
- Meet the ordinary and extraordinary needs of our students, ensuring that their experience at ELI is productive and fulfilling.

- Recruit only the most talented and experienced English language specialists and staff and promote their continued professional growth.
- Assume personal responsibility for solving problems, value each other as highly as we do our clients, and support each other in our work.
- Manage our resources, attaining financial viability without compromising the outstanding value of an ELI education.
- Enrich the University of Delaware and the local community, fostering cross-cultural communication and interaction.

Adopted May 19, 1999
ACCREDITATION

The University of Delaware ELI is fully accredited by the Commission on English Language Program Accreditation (CEA). The goal of CEA is to make sure programs like the ELI can meet accepted standards of the profession and show continuous improvement to meet the needs of students like you. CEA is officially recognized by the U.S. Department of Education. To learn more about CEA, please visit their website at www.cea-accredit.org.

In the appendix, you will find a summary of the CEA standards that we try every day to meet or exceed in service of our students. If you believe the ELI is not meeting any of the standards shown, please talk to Dr. Stevens or any ELI administrator or faculty member. We will do our best to address the problem and improve the program.

If, however, you believe we are not responding to your concerns or that we are failing to fulfill the requirements of these standards, you may file a complaint in writing to CEA online at www.cea-accredit.org/about-cea/complaints.

We hope that your experience at the ELI will be enjoyable and successful. Together, our mission statement (above) and the CEA standards represent our promise of caring and quality. Please let us know how we can do better.

YOUR FIRST WEEK AT THE ELI

You must complete New Student Orientation before you can begin classes. This orientation will introduce you to the ELI, the University of Delaware and the city of Newark.

WHAT WILL YOU DO DURING ELI ORIENTATION?

During orientation, you will learn more about UD. We will also share information about some resources that can help you to achieve your goals—and have fun—in Delaware!

You will also do your important business during orientation (e.g., take your placement test, get your UD student identification card, complete your student visa "check-in" process, pay your tuition bill, take the campus tour, etc.).

It will be important for you to follow the orientation schedule carefully so that you participate in all of the necessary activities.

IMMUNIZATIONS

For more information, visit the ELI web page shown above.

Students should try to get their immunizations in their home country, however, students who have not yet received the required vaccines prior to coming to Delaware will be taken to the UD Student Health Center to get them after they arrive. There will be a fee to pay for immunizations received in Delaware.

PRESENTATIONS

Throughout orientation, we will do some presentations and show you some videos about important topics, such as:

- Student visa regulations and how to maintain your visa status
- Tips for being successful in your ELI program
- Fire safety
- Tips for staying safe in Newark when walking or riding your bicycle (including bike safety rules)
- Where to go if you need help or have questions

These presentations and videos are very important; plus, some of the videos were made by previous ELI students!
SCHEDULES

Students will view their schedules online in the UD Student Information System (UDSIS) at udel.edu/eli/udsis.

TEXTBOOKS

After you receive your course schedule, it will be important for you to buy your textbooks. The ELI arranges an opportunity for you to buy your books after orientation finishes. We will take you to the bookstore and help you to find the right books for your classes.

PLACEMENT TESTING

HOW DOES THE PLACEMENT TEST WORK?

As you know, all students take a placement test when they first arrive at the ELI. We use the placement test to put you in a course that is at an appropriate level for your English ability. It is best for your courses not to be too easy or too hard for you; so, the ELI will place you in courses that are just a little more advanced than your current ability.

The placement testing activities and their range of scores are shown in the chart below.

HOW WILL I LEARN THE RESULTS OF THE PLACEMENT TEST?

You will learn the results of the placement tests when you receive your schedule on the first day of the session. The schedule shows your levels and classes.

Note: It is possible for you to be in a different level for each class (e.g., level III in listening/speaking and level IV in reading/writing).

Orientation

(noun) the process of giving people training and information about a new job, situation, etc.

Textbook | (plural: textbooks)

(noun) a book about a particular subject that is used in the study of that subject especially in school

Retesting: What If I Am Not Satisfied With My Score?

Our placement tests have been used at the ELI for many years, and they are reliable and accurate. Over 95% of the ELI’s students are happy with their placement into their ELI classes.

If you do not agree with your placement or feel that you did not do well on your test, you will have an opportunity to retest during the first week. This usually happens on Wednesday during the first week of classes. Test results will be ready within 1-2 days; these results will tell you if your levels or classes have been changed.

If you have questions, or disagree with the results of the retests, you may schedule an appointment to speak with Joe Matterer, ELI Associate Director. You may contact his assistant, Tanya Kang, at tkang@udel.edu to schedule an appointment.

Important: Remember, if you decide to retest, you must continue attending your original courses, participating in the lessons, and doing your homework until the ELI confirms whether your classes are changed.

Placement

(noun) the act of finding an appropriate place for someone to live, work, or learn
BILLING AND FINANCIAL QUESTIONS

www.udel.edu/eli/financials

Some of the information that you may need about billing matters, payments, meal plans, etc. can be found on pages 19 of this handbook. We also always keep the most updated information online.

To speak with an employee of the ELI Financial Office, visit the ELI Cashier’s Window at 189 West Main Street. Normally, the Cashier’s Window is open every weekday from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.; however, during the first 2 days of the session, it is open for additional hours. Check the lobby TVs or ask an ELI employee for more information about this.

HOUSING

www.udel.edu/eli/housing

Much of the information that you need to know about housing can be found online. You will also receive more information when you move into your new home. Here are a few more things to know:

- If you are staying in the ELI-approved hotel during orientation and you have already made a reservation to live in ELI housing, then the ELI will provide you with transportation from your hotel to your housing on Move-In Day.
- If you have not yet reserved housing for your first session at the ELI, please contact eli-housing@udel.edu or see the ELI Housing Coordinator at 108 East Main Street.
- If there is a problem when you move into your housing, it is important to tell someone about it immediately so that we can fix it before it becomes worse (and so that you will not be held responsible for causing the problem).
  - If you live in an apartment, contact the leasing office immediately and tell them that there is a problem.
  - If you live with a homestay family, then speak with the family or contact the ELI Homestay Coordinator, Stacey Leonard, at eli-homestay@udel.edu
  - If you live in the Global Community, speak with your American Global Fellow (AGF), with the hall director, or contact Tim Kim at eli-housing@udel.edu
  - If you live in the INNternationale, then contact Randy Becker in the front office of the INNternationale or by email at randybecker@theinnternationale.org.
  - If you live in the residence halls (i.e., dormitories) on campus, contact your resident advisor (RA).

CHECK YOUR PROGRAM DETAILS

Did you know? The ELI offers several programs simultaneously each session. This means that some of the friends that you will meet during orientation and in social activities may not be enrolled in the same ELI program as you.

Each ELI program has instructional components that make it special. It is important for you to know what to expect in your specific program.

Though we have some basic information in this handbook, we highly recommend that you visit our website at www.udel.edu/eli/programs to see details about your program.

WHAT IS ON YOUR SCHEDULE?

On the first day of each session, you will see your schedule online in the University of Delaware Student Information System (UDSIS) at udel.edu/eli/udsis. Your online schedule includes your courses, instructors, days/times, textbooks, tutoring and listening lab sessions. Eligible students can make class changes. For more information, visit www.udel.edu/eli/registrar/faq.

COURSES

ELI courses are normally organized into 2 categories: listening/speaking and reading/writing. Students may have both classes in the morning, or they may have one course in the morning and another in the afternoon.

• Morning classes are held every morning from Monday to Friday
• Afternoon classes are held from Monday to Thursday (we normally do not have classes on Friday afternoons)

Class times are shown on your schedule in UDSIS. Classes usually begin at 8:15 a.m.; however, in some sessions, courses may begin at a different time. For example, students are sometimes placed in afternoon classes, when necessary. It is important to follow the information on your schedule and to pay attention to any announcements from the ELI about changes in class times.

It is possible to change your courses during Week 1 of the session; however, not all students are eligible for this service. For more information, visit www.udel.edu/eli/registrar/faq.

TEXTBOOKS

You can purchase books and supplies at the University of Delaware Barnes & Noble bookstore. You should bring all assigned books to class every day. You must purchase a separate notebook to be used for writing work.

Most questions that you may have about selecting or changing classes can be found on the Registrar’s FAQ web page at www.udel.edu/eli/registrar/faq.
TUTORING

www.udel.edu/ell/tutoring

The ELI is one of the only ESL centers in the U.S. that offers private tutoring as a central part of its programs. Most ELI programs include private tutoring (usually for 2 hours each week). Tutoring is an excellent way to improve your English!

INDIVIDUAL TUTORING

In tutoring sessions, students work with their tutors to make an instructional plan which might include:

- Help with class assignments
- Work on individual programs with English
- Questions about American culture
- Conversation skills practice

Students in Academic Transitions (AT), the Conditional Admissions Program (CAP) and students who are sponsored by a government organization are required to attend tutoring.

CLUSTER TUTORING

The ELI also offers “cluster tutoring” (i.e., tutoring that is done in small groups) to students in most of its programs. Cluster tutoring is a terrific option to help small groups of students to learn about a specific subject or theme. Cluster topics can be related to:

- Academics (e.g., grammar)
- Culture (e.g., Kitchen Class, idioms)
- Professional activities (e.g., presentations, networking)
- Test preparation (e.g., IELTS, GMAT)

Clusters are usually offered for 2 hours per week (and they replace 1 hour of private tutoring)—and they are free! We encourage you to try a tutoring cluster while you are studying at the ELI. We are confident that you will find the experience useful and enjoyable!

To learn more about tutoring clusters, visit the tutoring website and/or attend the Cluster Faire during Week 1 of the session.

LISTENING LABORATORY

318 South College Avenue

Listening laboratory attendance is required for students in levels Basic to IV.

If you are eligible for listening lab, then your lab time will be printed on your schedule (or you may ask your listening/speaking teacher for information). Listening laboratory time varies according to your level.

SELF-ACCESS LEARNING CENTER (SALC)

108 East Main Street | www.udel.edu/ell/salc

Hours: Monday-Thursday: 8 a.m. - 6 p.m. | Friday: 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.

The SALC is a multimedia resource room where you can work to improve your reading, writing, listening, speaking, pronunciation, and vocabulary skills with a variety of materials. The SALC has many books, CDs, DVDs, software programs and access to the Internet to assist you with your study of the English language. The SALC staff can assist you with using the equipment and choosing materials.

LEARN HOW TO USE THE SALC

There are so many wonderful resources and activities at the SALC, so it is important to learn how to use them. To help you to know more about what you can do there, you can attend an SALC orientation session during the first week of the session. If you miss the SALC orientation, then you can watch the helpful orientation videos on the SALC website.
BE #SALCSOCIAL

Activities in the SALC

The SALC offers a variety of social and cultural activities for students! It is the home of the popular ELI book club, movie meetings, the Collaborative Homework Table, the writing contest, speaking appointments and the "Friends" conversation couch—where ELI students and UD students meet for conversation and fellowship. These activities are offered for free—so join in the fun!

ADVISING SERVICES

The ELI offers a variety of advising services to students.

ADMISSIONS ADVISING

If you are planning to attend a university program in the U.S. after you complete your English studies, the ELI’s Academic Advising Team can support you! We help students to better understand the admissions process at U.S. universities and to learn about the resources available to help them choose a university. For more information about this, contact your academic advisor (see below).

For questions about conditional admission to the University of Delaware (or to one of our partner colleges or universities) via Academic Transitions (AT) or the Conditional Admissions Program (CAP), contact Jeanine Chapman, Admissions Coordinator, at CAPadmissions@udel.edu.

ACADEMIC ADVISING

The ELI has an excellent team of academic advisors that work hard to help students to achieve their goals in our programs. These advisors are here to help you if you are having difficulty in your classes or if you simply want to make sure that you are “on track” (i.e., making progress in your program).

The lead academic advisors for the ELI are:

- Blythe Millbury-Steen: Academic advisor for students in AT and CAP | CAPadvisor@udel.edu
- Robbie Bushong: Academic advisor for students in the Intensive English Program (IEP) | rbushong@udel.edu

ACADEMIC SUCCESS CENTERS

www.udel.edu/eli/asc

The Academic Success Centers (ASCs) are “one-stop shops” that provide students with a variety of advising services, including:

- Information about the admissions process and how to apply to American universities
- Tips for writing application essays, statements of purpose and resumes required when applying to American universities
- Assistance with making a plan/strategy to complete big projects and assignments
- Advising about conditional admissions requirements

Students who do not need traditional advising services can come to the ASC to study during designated “quiet hours”—or to simply have a coffee and some fellowship with their peers and advisors.

VISA ADVISING SERVICES

The UD Office for International Students & Scholars (OISS) is the department that issued your I-20 Form (or DS-2019 Form). OISS handles all details concerning visa regulations.

The OISS Immigration Services Advisor for ELI students is Vina Titaley. If you need to see her, please make an appointment in advance. You can contact (302) 831-2115 or send an email to titaley@udel.edu.

For more information about visas, see page 18.

COUNSELING

The ELI offers counseling services to students through Tim Kim, Orientation Coordinator. Tim is a trained counselor and helps students that may be facing problems or stressful situations. He can be reached at tkim@udel.edu.

TAKING THE TOEFL EXAM

www.udel.edu/elli/toefl

The ELI offers the paper-based Institutional TOEFL exam once each session. The score from this exam can be used for your application to the University of Delaware.

In addition, UD is an official testing center for the Internet-based TOEFL (IBT). The score from the IBT can be used to apply for any university that requires a TOEFL score for admission.

Remember: Students who are enrolled in Academic Transitions (AT) or the Conditional Admissions Program (CAP) are not required to take a TOEFL or IELTS exam! You must complete your studies at the ELI in order to meet English requirements for admission to the University.

For more information, contact CAPadvisor@udel.edu.

STUDENT VISAS AND I-20 FORMS

RESOURCES TO LEARN MORE ABOUT MAINTAINING YOUR VISA STATUS

www.udel.edu/ell/csp/visas

The ELI has a helpful website that contains helpful information about:

- Extending your I-20 Form (or DS-2019)
- Requirements to maintain your visa status
- Visa status violations
- Vacation, travel and leave of absence
- Transferring to another school

Please take a moment to look at the information on that website. It may help you to keep your visa status out of trouble!

www.udel.edu/oiss

The OISS website is full of information for all international students and scholars at UD. You can find news about changes/upDATES to visa regulations information about campus resources and activities for international students and instructions/procedures related to maintaining your visa status. Be sure to check this website regularly.

HOW POOR ATTENDANCE OR GRADES CAN AFFECT YOUR VISA STATUS

Most ELI students have either an F-1 visa or a J-1 visa.
Federal regulations require student visaholders to make normal academic progress in their program and to follow the attendance policy at their school. Students who do not meet the ELI’s academic and/or attendance requirements may be dismissed; this means that their visa status will be terminated. This has serious consequences.

For more information about the ELI’s attendance and academic requirements, please see page 32 or speak with your academic advisor.

For more information about how dismissal can badly affect your visa status, contact your immigration advisor at OISS.

CHANGE OF CONTACT INFORMATION

If you have changed your address, phone number or email address, you are required to notify the ELI and OISS within 5 days of the change by completing the online Contact Update form: www.udel.edu/ell/csp/contactupdate. UD is required to notify the U.S. government any time you have a change in contact information.

TRAVEL OUTSIDE OF THE U.S.

www.udel.edu/ell/csp/travel

Most ELI students have a multiple-entry student visa, which allows them to leave the U.S. and come back more than one time. If you travel outside of the U.S. you must have your I-20 Form (or DS-2019 Form) signed by an advisor at OISS before you leave. If you do not follow this procedure, you may not be allowed to reenter the U.S.

To apply for travel authorization, you must complete a Travel Request Form at www.udel.edu/ell/csp/travelform.
BILLING INFORMATION

www.udel.edu/eli/financials | elibilling@udel.edu

WHEN DO STUDENTS RECEIVE THE BILL?

Bills for tuition and other fees are e-mailed to students before the session begins. The ELI also provides a paper copy of the bill to all new students at orientation.

You may also email elibilling@udel.edu. All questions are answered within 1-2 business days.

REFUND POLICY: TUITION AND FEES

Refunds are only available if you officially drop or withdraw from courses during the first week of classes (the “drop/add” period). No refunds will be given after “drop/add.”

Things to know about refunds for two-session bills

- The refund policy also applies to students who have requested a two-session discounted bill.
- If you decide that you want to change back to a one-session bill, you must do so before the end of “drop/add.” No refunds will be given after “drop/add.”
- No full or partial tuition refunds will be given if a student withdraws from the first session, does not continue in the second session, or changes programs.

REFUND POLICY: TRIPS

When students pay for a trip at the ELI Cashier’s Window, any approved refunds for trips will be made as follows:

- If you paid by credit card, your refund will be made directly to the same credit card.
- If you paid by cash or check, you will receive a refund through a UD check. It may take as long as 4-5 weeks from the time you request the check refund until you receive it.

In addition, any student who wants to request a refund must do so before the Wednesday before the trip.

HOW DO I PAY FOR HOUSING?

The housing payment process depends on the which housing type you live in.

- ELI Global Community. If you have been placed in the ELI Global Community, you will receive a separate bill by email, which will contain your housing fee.
- Homestay. If you are living with a homestay family, you will pay your family directly.
- Apartments. If you are living in an apartment off campus, you will pay your rent in the leasing office when you move in.
- UD dorms. If you are living in the residence halls on campus, you will receive a separate bill by email, which will contain your fees.
BANK ACCOUNTS

www.udel.edu/ell/csp/banking

Many ELI students have bank accounts at the PNC Bank in the Trabant University Center on Main Street. To open an account, take your money and passport to the bank between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. You can open checking and savings accounts and also get a debit card to use to withdraw cash from bank machines (ATMs) all over the United States.

HOUSING

www.udel.edu/ell/housing | elli-housing@udel.edu

The ELI offers several housing options to students; however, the type of housing that you can choose depends on the ELI program that you are doing. Before deciding where you want to live, consider your housing priorities and the housing policy related to your program. Details about housing options, terms and conditions and reservation instructions are online.

DINING

www.udel.edu/ell/dining | elibilling@udel.edu

In most ELI programs, meal plans are not required; however, the ELI offers meal plans to students who may be interested in this service. We offer 2 meal plans that can be used on campus, as well as an off-campus meal plan. Information about the different plans and their prices can be found online.

BAD WEATHER

Will the ELI be closed in bad weather?

In case of very bad weather (e.g., a big snowstorm or hurricane), UD and the ELI may either have a delayed start or will simply close for the day. If either of these situations happens, the news will be shared with you in several ways:

- We will send out a message to all students by email (usually by 7 a.m.)
- We will post a message on its website www.udel.edu/ell | click ELI News
- We will post a message on the ELI Facebook page www.facebook.com/UDelELI
- We will record a message on the ELI’s answering machine; call (302) 831-2674

In addition, information about the University’s closures is usually announced on the WVUD radio station (91.3 FM) between 6:30 a.m. and 7:45 a.m.
DRIVING IN THE UNITED STATES

RULES FOR DRIVING IN DELAWARE

Driving laws are different for each state, but the general rules are the same.

Seatbelts and child car seats

Many states, including Delaware, have mandatory seatbelt and child restraint laws. The driver and all passengers must always wear a seatbelt. In addition, small children (7 years old and under) must be restrained in an approved car seat or booster.

Using a cell phone while driving

In Delaware, it is illegal to use a cellphone while driving. If you are in your car and you need to use the phone, you must stop and park in a designated parking zone. You may also use a hands-free system to make/receive calls while driving.

Driving direction

Cars in the U.S. drive on the right side of the road. It is extremely important to remember this, even if you do not drive. Look both ways before crossing the street.

Other rules

There are many other rules for driving in Delaware. It is the driver's responsibility to know and obey all driving regulations.

GETTING A DRIVER’S LICENSE

www.udel.edu/eli/csp/driving

Do I need to get a driver’s license in Delaware?

Delaware regulations indicate that you can drive in the U.S for up to 60 days with a driver’s license from another country; however, if you plan to stay in Delaware for more than 60 days, then you must obtain a Delaware driver’s license within 60 days of your arrival.

If you do not have a license from another country, then you must get a Delaware license before you can drive.

Required documents to get a Delaware driver’s license

To get a license you will need the following documents:

- Your I-20 Form (it must be valid for at least 60 days)
- Proof of Residence verification letter from the ELI (it must be an original letter that is signed by the ELI Registrar)
- Social Security Card
  ➜ If you do not have a Social Security Card, you may request a “Letter of Ineligibility” from the Social Security Administration (SSA). To do this, you can visit the closest SSA Office at 101 Chesapeake Blvd, Elkton, Maryland 21921. Take your I-20 Form, your passport, and your I-94 card to them and request the “Letter of Ineligibility.”
- Passport
- F-1 visa
- Two documents that show where you live
  ➜ Examples: Your apartment lease, a utility bill, any piece of mail that shows your address

Where to get the driver’s license

www.dmv.de.gov/home/locations

Students can get a driver’s license at an office of the Delaware Division of Motor Vehicles (DMV). There are 4 DMV offices in Delaware. Use the link above to see a map, addresses and hours of operation for each DMV.

How to get the driver’s license*

www.dmv.de.gov

1. Go to the local DMV office
2. Complete a driver’s license application
3. Take an eye exam to test your vision
4. Take the driver’s license examination. This includes a written test about driver laws and a driving test.

If you live in Pennsylvania or Maryland, please visit the ELI’s website at www.udel.edu/eli/csp/driving for more information.

Drinking Alcohol and Driving

Drunk driving is a serious crime in the U.S., and one of the leading causes of death of people under the age of 25 years. Drivers are considered drunk if their blood-alcohol level is .08 (that is approximately 3 drinks in 1 hour).

If you are arrested for driving under the influence of alcohol (DUI), you will lose your license and you may go to jail. Also, any rental car insurance you may have purchased is invalid if an accident is alcohol-related.

Alcohol in the United States

American customs and laws regarding alcohol and drinking are probably very different than the laws in your country. Please read the following information and follow the rules. The University and local authorities are very serious when they enforce alcohol laws; saying "it is different in my country" is not considered an acceptable excuse.

Age Restriction

You must be 21 years old to purchase and drink alcohol in Delaware. This law is very strict. It is very common for the store clerk to ask to see your "ID" (i.e., passport, driver's license or state identification card) to prove your age when you are buying alcohol.

Students under the legal drinking age of 21 may not legally possess nor consume alcohol anywhere. If an underage student is drinking in your room, you will both be charged with an alcohol violation.

Location Restrictions

It is illegal for anyone, regardless of age, to possess an open container of alcohol in an area that is not licensed for alcohol consumption. This means that you may not carry an open can or bottle, for example, from your apartment to your friend's house. It is also against the law to take an open container out of a restaurant or bar.
HOW TO GET AROUND IN DELAWARE

RENTING A CAR

Renting a car can be complicated, and most rental companies want you to have several of the following qualifications:

- You must pay a large deposit (e.g., $400); you will get this money back when you return the car undamaged
- You must be at least 25 years old
- Some companies will allow you to rent a car at the age of 18 or 21 but may charge an additional fee
- You must have a valid American or international drivers license
- You must have a major credit or debit card
- You must show your passport and student ID

The closest car rental agency is Enterprise Car Rentals in Newark Shopping Center (next to the Main Street Movies 5). The telephone number is (302) 292-0524. You should always buy the vehicle renter’s insurance that is offered by the company. This will help you to avoid major expenses if the car is damaged while you are responsible for it.

UD SHUTTLE BUS SERVICE

www.udshuttle.com

The University offers a free shuttle bus service for all students during most periods of the year. You can use their website to get information about the routes and the bus’ current location. Note: schedules may change in the summer or winter sessions.

DART BUSES (DELAWARE PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION)

www.dartfirststate.com

Delaware Administration for Regional Transit (DART) buses serve most of New Castle County around Newark and Wilmington. There are over 20 different routes, most of which begin or end in downtown Wilmington.

Important bus routes for you to know

- Bus #33 or #34 travels from Newark to the Christiana Mall.
- Bus #6 travels from Newark to the Wilmington Amtrak Station on Kirkwood Highway (Route 2).

Bus schedules

The schedules may change slightly every six months. You can get a bus schedule from the front desk staff at ELI buildings, in the University Student Centers or at OISS. Bus schedules are also available online: www.DartFirstState.com.

There is no DART service on Sundays.

HOW TO GET TO OTHER CITIES

BUS SERVICES

Bus travel between cities in the U.S. is usually the cheapest mode of public transportation, but it is also the slowest.

Megabus (us.megabus.com) provide service to major cities on the East Coast of the U.S. They depart from the Parking Lot #6 on Christiana Drive, located on the UD North Campus above Christiana Commons (download a UD campus map at www.udel.edu/elli/campus-map.pdf).

It is important to stay alert and pay attention in and around bus stations.

(see next page for more options)

TRAINS

Newark has a basic train platform on South College Avenue (under the South College Avenue railroad bridge). Here, you can take an Amtrak train (www.amtrak.com) to New York or to Washington, DC. You can also use the SEPTA train (www.septa.org) to get to Philadelphia.

Tip: There is a bigger train station with more train route options in Wilmington, Delaware.

TAXI CABS

The Seacoast Cab Company serves Newark and Wilmington (302) 834-7575. Taxi cabs can sometimes be very expensive.

Uber is also a popular option for students.

AIRPORT SHUTTLE SERVICE

www.delexpress.com | (302) 454-7800

If you need transportation to the Philadelphia International Airport, consider making a reservation with Delaware Express. You can make a reservation by calling them or visiting their website. When you make your reservation, indicate where you want to be picked up and what time you need to be at the airport.

If you enter the student discount code (114906), you will get an 8% discount. The price includes the price of the trip plus a tip for the driver. It normally costs approximately $50.

Note: Shuttle service to JFK Airport is very expensive; if you need to go to JFK you should take the train or rent a car.
PARKING YOUR CAR AT THE ELI

PARKING AT 318 SOUTH COLLEGE AVENUE

Parking at 318 S. College Ave. is shared by students, teachers, tutors, and staff. There are not enough parking spaces for everyone who would like to park there. Please see the map below; parking for students is in the area numbered 1.

- Only students who have classes, listening lab, tutoring or an ELI planned activity at 318 S. College Ave. may park there.
- You can only park your car at 318 S. College Ave. when you are in the building. You cannot leave your car there if you leave the building to go to another location.
- You may only park in the Student Parking area (see #1 on the map above).
  - Exception: You can use faculty lot #3 (see map above) in the morning; however, you must move your car before 12:30 p.m. If your car is in faculty lot #3 after 12:30 p.m., it will be towed.
- When you enter the parking lot from South College Avenue, the area on the right (area #4 on the map above) is never permitted for ELI students. This area belongs to a UD office called MARACOOS. It is not for ELI use.
- Area #5 is for cars with Handicapped permits. Handicapped permits are provided by the State of Delaware, not the ELI or the University.
- Parking spaces have white lines. Parking is not permitted where there are no white lines.
- We suggest that you arrive for your class, lab, or tutoring at least 10-15 minutes before the start time so that you have time to find another place to park if no spaces are available at 318 S. College Ave.

PARKING ELSEWHERE ON CAMPUS

There are several parking options in the area of the UD campus. Most parking in the area is not free, so please be prepared to pay for your parking. Some parking options on campus include the parking garages next to the Perkins and Trabant Student Centers. There are also parking meters on many of the roads around campus. Finally, you can buy a parking pass from UD Parking Services udel.edu/parking. They are located in the Perkins Student Center.
SHOPPING IN THE UNITED STATES

Shopping in the U.S. may be a new and different experience for you. Fortunately, Delaware has no sales tax! Here are some hints to help you in your shopping experience.

- Prices at retail stores are fixed; you cannot bargain for a reduced price. The only exceptions are car dealers and flea markets (second-hand markets);
- Remember, there is no sales tax in Delaware. Other states may charge you a sales tax.

KNOW THE RETURN POLICY

No matter where you shop, you should always keep your receipt or sales slip and return the product's warranty card to the manufacturer. Ask the shopkeeper or salesperson about the store's return/refund and service policy. If you do not like the answer, shop somewhere else.

WHEN SHOULD YOU LEAVE A TIP?

When eating at a restaurant it is customary in the United States to leave at least a 15%-20% tip. This is because the servers mostly get paid through tips, not through a salary.

It is also appropriate to tip for good service in the following situations:

- When you get a haircut, manicure, pedicure, facial, or any other beauty service (15%-20%)
- When you take a ride in a taxi, Uber or Lyft (10%-20%)
- When you stay at a hotel, you can tip the person who helps you carry your bags ($1-$3 per bag) or the person who cleans your room ($2-$5 per night)
- When you order food for delivery, you can tip the delivery person (a few dollars)

The tip amounts listed above are just suggestions. You can decide how much you want to tip for any service based on how happy you are with the service you received. For more information, you can do a search online for "tipping etiquette in the U.S."

SIZE, WEIGHTS AND MEASURES

The U.S. is one of the few nations of the world that has not adopted the metric system in daily life. The metric system is used only in scientific fields. The following information will help you convert U.S. measurements to metric measurements.

LINEAR MEASUREMENT

The most common unit of length is the “foot”. The foot is divided into 12 “inches.” Inches are divided into halves, quarters, eighths, sixteenths, etc. Some common equivalencies are shown below (including several ways of writing them).

12 inches (also written as 12" or 12 in.) = 1 foot (also written as 1’ or 1 ft.)
3 feet (also written as 3’ or 3 ft.) = 1 yard (also written as 1 yd.)

TEMPERATURE

The U.S. uses the Fahrenheit scale for thermometers measuring body, cooking and air temperatures. Science laboratories use the Celsius (also called "Centigrade") scale.

Water freezes at 32°F (0°C)
Water boils at 212°F (100°C)
Room temperature is about 70°F (21.1°C)
Human body temperature is 98.6°F (37°C)

U.S. CURRENCY (MONEY)

BASIC THINGS TO KNOW

- The “dollar” is the basic unit of exchange. The dollar is divided into 100 “cents”
- One cent = 1¢ = $0.01 = a penny
- Paper money is usually referred to as “bills”

A “dollar” is often referred to as a “buck” (e.g., $10 is often called “10 bucks”)

BILLS

- Nearly all bills are the same color and size, and they have similar designs; it is very important to pay attention to the denomination of each bill
- A $1 dollar bill is often called a “single” (i.e., a single dollar)
- Bills come in denominations of $1, $2 (rare), $5, $10, $20, $50, $100 and higher.

COINS

- Coins come in denominations of $1 and smaller
- Coins are silver-colored except for the penny, which is copper-colored

SENDING MAIL: U.S. POSTAL SERVICE

LOCATIONS AND HOURS

The closest post office is at 110 East Main Street (next to the ELI building at 108 East Main Street). It is open from Monday to Friday (9 a.m. to 4 p.m.) and on Saturday (8 a.m. to 12 p.m.).

There is also a larger post office at 401 Ogletown Road (on the corner of Library Avenue and Main Street/Route 273). It is open from Monday to Friday (7:30 a.m. to 8 p.m.) and on Saturday (8 a.m. to 1 p.m.). This is the main post office that serves our area; this is where you can pick up packages that could not be delivered to your home.

POST OFFICE SERVICES

At the post office, you can buy mail supplies (e.g., postage stamps, envelopes, boxes). You can also buy money orders.

Receiving mail

You should arrange to receive all of your mail at your local home address. Large packages or sensitive mail can be sent to the ELI at 108 East Main Street (2nd floor), Newark DE 19711. Be sure that the sender includes your full name (as it appears on your passport) on the package. Mail is delivered to the ELI in the afternoon.

Sending mail

You can send mail from the post office, any public mailbox (often located on street corners or in commercial plazas) and from the ELI “outgoing mail” basket. You must include sufficient postage stamps and a return address (i.e., your address) on your envelope or package. If you are not sure how many stamps to put on a package, you should take it to the post office so that they can help you. The USPS also has a helpful postage calculator tool on its website: https://postcalc.usps.com.
Currently, it costs approximately $1.15 to mail a regular letter (weighing 0.5 oz.) to another country. Delivery dates are different for each destination.

This is the correct format for addressing an envelope:

CLUBS AND ACTIVITIES (EXAMPLES)

AMERICAN HOST PARTNER PROGRAM (AHPP)

www.udel.edu/eli/ahpp

The AHPP is an opportunity for UD students and international students to build cross-cultural friendships. American hosts are current UD students who are passionate about welcoming and hosting an ELI student as a visitor and guest to the UD campus and community.

BOOK CLUB

www.udel.edu/eli/bookclub

The book club is a very popular activity organized by the SALT. Students read one book each session. Participants have many chances to practice their speaking and reading skills and to form friendships with ELI classmates. Check the SALT website for book club times and dates.

ELI GARDEN

www.udel.edu/eli/garden | 189 West Main Street

Working in the ELI Garden is a terrific way to interact with Americans while enjoying a useful—and delicious!—project.

“FRIENDS” CONVERSATION COUCH

www.udel.edu/eli/friendscouch

The SALT organizes a popular conversation corner where ELI students and UD students can chat about university life and topics of general interest.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

www.udel.edu/00406

Sign up to play sports with friends from the ELI and UD students through the Intramurals program. Some of the sports offered in the program include soccer, American football, basketball, or volleyball. Contact Tim Kim for more information (tlkim@udel.edu).
WOMEN’S GROUP

www.udel.edu/ell/wlsdg

The Women’s Group supports women of diverse cultural backgrounds transition to American culture. We share conversations about cultural identity and challenges faced in daily life. The group provides a safe space to build cross-cultural friendships. All female students from ELI and UD are welcome.

UNIVERSITY OF DELAWARE CLUBS

studentcentral.udel.edu

There are over 400 registered student organizations (RSOs) at UD, and many of them welcome ELI students. RSOs give you excellent opportunities to meet American students and share cultural experiences with them.

Where to find information about RSOs:

- Check the UD Student Central website (studentcentral.udel.edu); it contains general information about each RSO, as well as upcoming events and news
- Ask the ELI orientation staff
- If you are starting your program at the ELI in the fall semester, you can attend Student Activities Night at the beginning of the semester.

UNIVERSITY OF DELAWARE EVENTS

studentcentral.udel.edu | events.udel.edu

There are always activities happening at UD, including sporting events, guest lectures, art exhibits, plays, etc. We highly recommend that you visit the website of UD Student Central and the UD Events Calendar in order to keep track of activities that you may want to join.

USING UNIVERSITY FACILITIES

With the University ID card, you have the same access to many UD facilities and the same privileges as UD students. The ELI encourages you to take advantage of everything the University of Delaware has to offer. You can use your ID for:

- Academic facilities such as the Morris Library, the Educational Resource Center, and UD computing sites.
- Sports facilities like the Carpenter Sports Building and the UD Ice Arena. The sports buildings are great places to meet UD students in a relaxed environment. You can make friends while playing basketball, swimming, or exercising. ELI students also receive free admission to UD football and basketball games, and reduced admission prices for other sporting events.
- Cultural facilities such as the University Gallery, Music Department practice rooms, and student activities centers. The UD Art Department hosts several exhibitions each year and maintains a permanent display in the Old College gallery. The Music Department presents concerts every few weeks with student, faculty, and visiting performers. The university also has two student centers that host films and other programs that can give you great exposure to American culture.
Be aware of important policies so that your time in Delaware will stay positive and enjoyable!

LATE ARRIVAL/EARLY WITHDRAWAL

ELI sessions for most programs are 7-8 weeks in length. The Academic Transitions (AT) program is based on 4-month semesters.

You must arrive by the first day of each session or you may be asked to wait until the next session (and this would have an affect on your visa status). In rare cases, an exception may be made for new students. New students who need to arrive late must make special arrangements with the ELI Admissions Office before arriving in Delaware. The ELI Admissions Office can be contacted at ud-eli@udel.edu.

The ELI offers no refunds for late arrival, early withdrawal or dismissal. For more information, see the refund policy at www.udel.edu/eli/financials/refund.

New or returning students who do not check in on the first day of the session will be marked absent and will not be able to change classes.

ENGLISH-ONLY POLICY

In the past, we surveyed our students regarding the use of English at the ELI. Here are the results of the survey:

- Nearly 40% of students reported that they did not use English very often outside of class.
- More than 50% of students thought it rude and uncomfortable when students around them spoke a language they could not understand.
- More than 92% of students reported that they remember English vocabulary and grammar better when they use English frequently.
- Nearly 90% of students said they would speak English more frequently if those around them used English.
- Finally, 77% of students agreed or strongly agreed with a proposed new policy to enforce an English-only policy for all ELI spaces.

As a result of that survey, we created the English-only policy at the ELI. This means that only English may be spoken in ELI buildings, on ELI property, and in any building where ELI classes and activities are being held.

WHY IS THIS IMPORTANT?

- You and/or your sponsor are spending a great deal of time and money on your English language education.
- The more you use English, the more quickly you will learn it. This policy will help you meet your English goals faster and graduate from the ELI sooner.

All of us—faculty, staff, and students—work hard to create an international community of learning where students can study and make friends with people from around the world. Using your native language in the presence of others may send the message that they are not welcome in your group; it works to divide, rather than unite, the ELI student body.

HOW DOES THE POLICY WORK?

ELI tutors, staff, and teachers look for students who speak English outside of classes and tutoring time. We will give those students raffle tickets. Students can turn in their raffle tickets for prizes!

Prizes include:

1 ticket = Pencil or keychain
3 tickets = Pen, pencil, sharpener, notepad or lanyard
6 tickets = Rubik's cube, coin container or notebook
10 tickets = mug, canvas bag or $5 Main Street gift card
15 tickets = $10 Main Street Gift Card

Tickets are also entered in a raffle! A $10 Main Street gift card will be raffled every week. At the end of the session, weekly winners will be entered in a chance to win a $100 Main Street gift card!

Redeem your tickets at the front desk of 108 East Main Street or at 189 West Main Street between 12:30 p.m. and 2 p.m.

ATTENDANCE & ACADEMIC POLICY

It is very important that you attend class to be in good standing at the ELI and to maintain your visa status.

HOW DOES THE ELI COUNT ABSENCES?

Absences are recorded as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Action</th>
<th>Absences</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>If you do not attend a class/discussion</td>
<td>1 absence for each meeting missed</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>If you do not attend tutoring/cohort</td>
<td>One-half (0.5) of 1 absence for each meeting missed</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>If you do not pick up your schedule at Opening Day</td>
<td>1 absence</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>If you are on your first probation and you do not attend the required</td>
<td>1 absence</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Attendance Probation meeting</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>If you arrive to class/discussion late, leave early, or take too many</td>
<td>One-third (0.33) of 1 absence for each time you are late,</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>breaks (less than 15 minutes for any of these cases)</td>
<td>leave early, or take excessive breaks</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>If you arrive to tutoring/cohort late, leave early, or take too many</td>
<td>0.16 of 1 absence for each time you are late, leave early,</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>breaks (less than 15 minutes for any of these cases)</td>
<td>or take excessive breaks</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>If you arrive to class/discussion late, leave early, or take too many</td>

<tr>
<td>breaks (more than 15 minutes for any of these cases)</td>

<tr>
<td>If you arrive to tutoring/cohort late, leave early, or take too many</td>
<td>One-half (0.5) of 1 absence for each time you miss more than</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>breaks (more than 15 minutes for any of these cases)</td>
<td>15 minutes</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

In general, you must attend 80% of your class/tutoring/cohort meetings each session, or you will be placed on attendance probation. This means you will be placed on attendance probation if:

- The session is 7 weeks long and you miss 14 meetings
- The session is 8 weeks long and you miss 16 meetings
- Your Academic Transitions (AT) class is 16 weeks long and you miss more than 6 class/discussion/tutoring/cohort meetings in each 8-week period

If you have more than 20 absences in an 8-week period and/or you have more than one attendance probation, the ELI Student Conduct and Attendance Committee and ELI Director will discuss your case. You may be dismissed from the ELI.

Note: ELI and UD content course instructors may have more strict attendance policies in order for you to be successful in your program.

HOW TO GET OFF OF ATTENDANCE PROBATION

To get off attendance probation, you must attend 85% of your class/tutoring/cohort meetings. This means:

- If the session is 7 weeks long, you cannot miss more than 10 class/tutoring/cohort meetings
- If the session is 8 weeks long, you cannot miss more than 11 class/tutoring/cohort meetings
If your Academic Transitions (AT) semester is 16 weeks long, you cannot miss more than 5 class/discussion/tutoring/cohort meetings in each 8-week period.

ACADEMIC PROGRESS REQUIREMENTS

It is very important that you make good academic progress to be in good standing at the ELI and to maintain your visa status. If the average of your grades is below a C at the end of a session, you will be on academic probation for the next session; however:

- Academic Transitions (AT) students must earn a C+ or higher in ARSC150, ARSC151 and ENGL110. If you do not earn the minimum grade of C+, then you will be placed on probation and you must repeat the course.
- Students that are required to take ARSC152 must earn a C+ or higher. If you do not earn the minimum grade of C+, then you will be placed on academic probation and you must repeat the course.

HOW TO GET OFF OF ACADEMIC PROBATION

To get off academic probation, you must pass all your classes with a C or higher (73%). If you do not do this, the ELI Student Conduct and Attendance Committee and ELI Director will discuss your case. You may be dismissed from the ELI.

AT students must earn a C+ or higher in ARSC150, ARSC151, ENGL110, and ARSC152. If you do not earn a C+ or higher you can take the course one more time. If you do not earn a C+ or higher the second time, you will likely be dismissed from AT and from the ELI.

STUDENT GRADE REPORTS

The ELI will issue student grade reports each session. Students who are graduating will receive their grade report at graduation. Students who are continuing at the ELI will receive their grades when they receive their new schedule. Please visit www.udel.edu/eli/levelobjectives for a detailed description of ELI level skills and learning objectives.

CERTIFICATES

The ELI awards a certificate to each student who completes their ELI course in good standing. You need overall attendance of 85% and an average grade of C to qualify for a certificate.
MULTIPLE REPEATER POLICY

A student has two sessions to pass at any given level.

A student who fails or is retained at the end of the second session will take the placement test and be considered for replacement at a lower level (subject to administrative discretion in exceptional cases). If the placement test does not indicate replacement, the student may stay at the same level. If the student does not pass in the next (third) session (either at the same or lower level), the student will be dismissed, except by special permission of the Director or Associate Directors in extraordinary circumstances.

* “Passing” for Level VI CAP students refers to meeting the program’s matriculation requirements. Information about these requirements is available at: www.udel.edu/elli/cap/matricreqs. “Passing” for AT students refers to meeting the requirements to move to the next AT semester or to matriculate after AT2 or AT3. Information about AT promotion and matriculation requirements can be downloaded (PDF) at: www.udel.edu/elli/at/reqs.pdf. If you have a question about these requirements, contact CAPAdvisor@udel.edu.

 For the purposes of this policy, General V and EAP V are considered two levels, and General VI and EAP/Grad VI are considered two levels. Further, the two Pre-MBA listening/speaking courses (ABCS and Entrepreneurship) will also be considered two levels.

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY POLICY

“All students must be honest and forthright in their academic studies. To falsify the results of one’s research, to steal the words or ideas of another, to cheat on an assignment, or to allow or assist another to commit these acts corrupts the educational process. Students are expected to do their own work and neither give nor receive unauthorized assistance. Any violation must be reported to the Office of Student Conduct.”

(Retrieved from: www.udel.edu/stuguide)

If a teacher believes you have cheated or plagiarized, he/she will give you a warning on the first violation and may require you to do the work again at the teacher’s discretion.

After a second violation, your teacher may have you do the work again and/or fail you on that assignment. Your teacher will also complete a Formal Notice of Academic Dishonesty form and give a duplicate copy to the Chair of the Student Attendance and Conduct Committee.

After the third violation, whether in the same class or a future class, the teacher will take the following actions:

- The teacher will give you a grade of zero for the test or assignment in question.
- You will receive notice requiring you to attend a hearing to determine if you should be dismissed from the program and, if a CAP student, whether UD should withdraw its offer of conditional admissions.
- If you have committed an egregious act of plagiarism or cheating, you will not be given three chances.
WHAT IS AN EGREGIOUS ACT OF PLAGIARISM?

Egregious acts of cheating or plagiarism include:

- Submitting the work of another as one’s own
- Downloading a paper (in whole or in part) from the internet and submitting as one’s own
- Stealing or copying an exam either physically or electronically
- Plagiarizing a paragraph or more from another source

Egregious violations of ELI’s policy will be immediately reported to the Student Attendance and Conduct Committee, which will make a record of the event and issue a letter of warning. If a second egregious act occurs, you would be asked by the Student Attendance and Conduct Committee to meet for a hearing to determine if you should be dismissed from the program and, if you are a conditionally admitted student, whether the University should withdraw its offer of conditional admission.

"Honesty is the best policy."

Benjamin Franklin
ELI Director reviews your potential violation of Code of Conduct.

ELI Director determines that you have violated UD Housing Policy or criminal code.

You are referred to the UD Judicial System. For more information on the UD judicial system, see www.udel.edu/stuguide.

You and/or complainant(s) or others concerned will meet with ELI Director, who will suggest action to resolve the situation.

You and/or complainant(s) or others concerned accept the decision of the ELI Director.

You and/or complainant(s) appeal to ELI Student Conduct Committee to amend or revise the decision of the ELI Director.

Situation is resolved

At any stage of the judicial process, the ELI may call upon appropriate university or community resources (e.g., Dean of Students’ Office, Office for International Students and Scholars, UD Counseling Center, UD Public Safety, etc.) for assistance.

The flowchart below explains how the ELI judicial system works. If you have any questions about this, contact Tim Kim at tkim@udel.edu.
HYGIENE AND GROOMING

Ideas about hygiene can be very different between cultures. Since hygiene is such a personal subject, discussing it can sometimes be awkward and embarrassing.

Unfortunately, the perception of poor personal hygiene and grooming can have negative effects for people in the U.S. For example, sometimes, when a person is perceived to have poor hygiene, it can be difficult for them to make friends.

Another important negative impact to consider is that poor hygiene can make people very sick. At the ELI, we care about your health. To help you to stay healthy while you are studying in Delaware, we are providing you with some information about recommended hygiene practices.

INFORMATION FROM THE U.S. CENTERS FOR DISEASE CONTROL AND PREVENTION (CDC)

www.cdc.gov

The CDC is a government organization that is responsible for protecting Americans from health risks. They provide us with information on many topics related to healthy living. Here are a few links to helpful CDC web pages:

- Wearing too much perfume and cologne is not recommended because it can cause serious allergic reactions and/or discomfort for other people.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU ARE SICK

EMERGENCY SITUATION

If you must go to the hospital, call 911 and ask for an ambulance. See the back cover of this handbook for details.

NON-EMERGENCY SITUATION

If you are sick but it is not an emergency, you can get medical help right here on campus. All ELI students pay a health clinic fee with their tuition bill each session; this gives them access to the doctors and nurses in the Student Health Center on campus. The Student Health Center is open 24 hours per day.

Sponsored students whose governments provide them with medical insurance can also go to off-campus doctors that are included on their insurance plan.
Do you have ELI medical insurance?

- No
  - Go to a hospital or doctor that is included on your insurance plan. Bring your insurance card. Send the claim to your insurance company.

- Yes
  - Is this an emergency situation (trouble breathing, significant bleeding, broken bone)
    - No
      - Go to Student Health Services (SHS) on campus (or make an appointment)
    - Yes
      - Call 911 or go to the closest Emergency Room. Remember to contact ELI, too (see back cover for telephone numbers).

In most cases, your treatment will finish at SHS and you will not do an insurance claim. However, if SHS sends you to a doctor or service off campus, you will submit a claim to HTH.

Submit the claim to HTH Worldwide Insurance. Claim forms available at the ELI or at hthstudents.com.
UD STUDENT HEALTH SERVICES

Phone: (302) 831-2226

If you feel ill or are injured and you need to see a doctor, you can go to the University's Student Health Services in Laurel Hall. Laurel Hall is located on South College Avenue near East Park Place, a 5 minute walk past the Morris Library. It is close to the ELI building at 318 South College Avenue.

The Student Health Service is open 24 hours per day, every day. Doctors are on duty from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. A doctor is "on call" after hours, too. Nurses are on staff all the time.

All ELI students pay a mandatory Health Center fee, so there is no charge at the time of your visit.

You should always visit the Student Health Service first if you are not well. They will advise you if you need to go to the hospital or to a different clinic. This approach will also avoid problems with insurance payments.

MEDICAL INSURANCE

All ELI students must have medical insurance. ELI students are required to purchase GeoBlue insurance coverage for the duration of their studies at the ELI (unless the student is sponsored by a government organization that provides him/her with a better insurance policy). Health insurance is included on students' tuition bills.

If you have questions about insurance, please contact Tim Kim at tkim@udel.edu or by phone at (302) 831-1174.

INSURANCE PROVIDER: GEOBLUE HEALTH INSURANCE

Insurance coverage for ELI students is provided by GeoBlue Health Insurance.

You will receive an ID card with your name and insurance ID number on it during your first session at the ELI. If you need proof of insurance before you receive the card, you can visit the ELI Cashier's Window at 189 West Main Street to request a copy.

DENTIST INFORMATION

In case you need to visit a dentist, the closest offices are: Newark Dental Associates on East Main Street (www.newarkdental.com), and Park Place Dental Care on West Park Place (www.thedentalgroupoledelaware.com).

Your insurance has minimal dental coverage.

WHAT TO DO IN AN EMERGENCY

In the United States, contacting the emergency services (e.g., fire department, police, or paramedics) is very efficient. We have one number to call: 911.

OFF CAMPUS EMERGENCY

Call 911 from any telephone. Tell the operator where you are and what kind of emergency you have (fire, injury, etc.). The operator will contact the appropriate emergency department for you.

ON-CAMPUS EMERGENCY

Call 911 in an emergency. You can also call UD Public Safety (campus police) at (302) 831-2222.

Blue light phones on campus

If you are on campus and have an emergency, you can also use the blue light phone boxes located all over campus. They are a direct line to the University police.

Just open the phone compartment and press the big button. Someone will answer you using the speaker.

If you do not know where you are, do not worry—the phones are connected to a computerized map of campus, and the police will know where to find you if you stay near the phone.

CONTACT THE ELI

If you have an emergency, contact the ELI at (302) 831-2674.

I AM SICK BUT IT IS NOT AN EMERGENCY

If you have a health or medical problem that is not an emergency, please see the information and instructions on pages 39-40 of this handbook.

WHAT IF MY ENGLISH IS NOT GOOD ENOUGH TO USE IN AN EMERGENCY?

Take the orange ELI emergency card out of your wallet. It has the phone numbers the ELI directors. It also helps to identify you as an ELI student. Give the card to anyone nearby and they can help you to call us.
