Where in the World Will You Go with UD?
What is the Institute for Global Studies?

The Institute for Global Studies (IGS) was created in 2009 to enhance the international dimensions of teaching, research and outreach at the University of Delaware.

IGS provides leadership and support for programs and experiences that contribute to the education of informed, skilled, open-minded citizens of the world.
Fostering a Global Perspective

Challenging Students to Learn Through:

• Study Abroad
• Service Learning Experiences at Home & Abroad
• International Internships
• On-Campus Global Engagement
Our Global Legacy

UD founded the nation’s first study abroad program in 1923, when Professor Raymond Kirkbride proposed a daring new plan to take eight students to France by ship for immersive language study during their junior year.

Be sure to try UDairy’s 1923 ice cream, crafted in honor of the 90th anniversary of Study Abroad.
Honoring Our Pioneering Spirit

Today, UD continues to be an innovator in the field of international education.

• Study Abroad is a hallmark of the UD experience. Approximately 30% of UD students study abroad during their undergraduate careers.
• In 2017-18 1,435 students participated in UD’s nearly 100 global study programs.
  • 72% during Winter Session
  • 16% during Fall
  • 6% during Spring
  • 6% during Summer

Costs

Tuition & Fees + Program Fee + Airfare

- Tuition for study abroad is the same as on-campus
  - Winter or Summer program = 3-7 credits
  - Summer internship = 1-3 credits
  - Semester program = 12-17 credits
- Program fees vary by program location, length & design
- Students purchase their airfare separately.
- We are working hard to create a range of programs at varying costs so that education abroad is accessible for all students.

South Africa
UD Study Abroad applicants are automatically considered for need-based awards (current FAFSA required).

- Awards to students with financial need cover 50-75% of the Program Fee.
