University of Delaware Study Abroad Selection Criteria

(not listed in order of preference)

The following criteria may be used to make acceptance decisions for UD travel study programs:

- reason for choosing study abroad program (motivation for applying)
  - academic reasons
  - non-academic reasons
- prior study abroad experience
- grade point average
- major/minor
- performance in any prerequisite or related courses
- prior study abroad experience
- faculty recommendation
- conduct history
- class year (giving seniors priority over juniors)
- classification status (giving full-time UD students priority over part-time and/or non-UD students)

- personal qualities/Interpersonal skills:
  - independence
  - reliability
  - maturity
  - adaptability
  - ability to interact with a group
  - willingness to engage in cross-cultural opportunities
  - ability to function in stressful and/or ambiguous situations

The University of Delaware does not discriminate against any person on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, genetic information, marital status, disability, religion, age, veteran status or any other characteristic protected by applicable law in its employment, educational programs and activities, admissions policies, and scholarship and loan programs as required by Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, and other applicable statutes and University policies. The University of Delaware also prohibits unlawful harassment including sexual harassment and sexual violence.

updated 5-15-19