WHERE TO BEGIN
1. Department website and bulletin boards; your advisor; and other graduate students.

2. Peruse the curriculum vitae of senior scholars in your field.

4. The Office of Graduate & Professional Education internal fellowships: http://www.udel.edu/gradoffice/current/; and attend the half-day Grant and Fellowship Workshops sponsored by the Office of G&PE.

MORRIS LIBRARY RESOURCES
1. Resources for Foundations and Grants http://www2.lib.udel.edu/subj/foce/

2. Community of Science Funding Opportunities http://fundingopps.cos.com/

3. Foundation Center http://www.foundationcenter.org/; Foundation Grants to Individuals Online; and Foundation Directory Online Professional

4. Grants for Delaware and Delaware Valley residents

WEB RESOURCES & FUNDING DATABASES
Set a Google Alert for fellowships: http://www.google.com/alerts; save a search through the Foundation Grants to Individuals Online (see above); set up a funding alert through the Community of Science (see above); and use RSS Feeds.

http://www.lib.msu.edu/harris23/grants/3subject.htm
Comprehensive list from Michigan State University, all disciplines

http://www.gradschool.cornell.edu/?p=132
Cornell University funding database, all disciplines

http://ors.duke.edu/orsmanual/graduate-and-professional-student-funding Office of Research Services, Duke University, all disciplines

http://opd.tamu.edu/funding-opportunities
Texas A&M Office of Proposal Development, all disciplines

www.grantsnet.org
Biomedical, life, physical, social sciences, mathematics and engineering

www.grants.gov
Federal grants