DISSERTATION/EDUCATION LEADERSHIP PORTFOLIO COMMITTEE COMPOSITION: Each Dissertation/Education Leadership Portfolio Committee shall consist of not less than four and nor more than six members approved through appropriate departmental procedures.

At least two members shall represent the primary area of study, one of whom shall be the committee's chairperson. The chairperson should have an established record of publication and/or scholarship in the field of dissertation/executive position paper and shall be a full-time member of the faculty of the University; the definition of faculty shall include professional staff that holds secondary faculty appointments. One member shall represent the secondary area of study (where appropriate). If the student does not have a secondary area of study, then this member must be drawn from an area in the department outside of the primary area of study. In either case, the member must be a full-time member of the faculty.

At least one external member chosen from a different academic unit or from outside the University of Delaware shall be a member of the committee. The external member(s) should normally be expected to have an established record of publication and/or scholarship in the field of the Dissertation/Education Leadership Portfolio. Students are encouraged to seek the external member from outside the University in order to broaden the perspectives of the committee. Faculty at the University of Delaware who serve in the capacity of an external member may have a secondary or adjunct appointment in the doctoral candidate's unit, but the primary appointment must be in a different unit.

In general, doctoral committees should strive to achieve consensus concerning the student's performance and quality of work. In case of dissenting votes, the majority opinion rules and a majority vote in favor is needed for a successful defense.
