

Students Interested in Applying for an NSF Graduate Research Fellowship

Friday October 22, 2010

3:00 pm

104 Gore Hall

Dr. Gisele Muller-Parker
Program Director
Division of Education
National Science Foundation

AM I ELIGIBLE?*

Senior Undergraduates and First and Second Year Graduate Students Pursuing M.S. and Ph.D. research in the fields of:

Chemistry, Computer and Information Science and Engineering, Engineering, Geosciences, Life Sciences, Mathematical Sciences, Physics and Astronomy, Psychology, Social Sciences, STEM Education.

FELLOWS RECEIVE:

- Three years of support at $30,000 annual stipend
- $10,500 cost-of-education allowance
- International research and professional development opportunities
- TeraGrid Supercomputer access

*Must be a US citizen or permanent resident.

Sponsored by the Office of Graduate and Professional Education