Case Study Part III

Activity 3: Please keep the identified stakeholders in mind as you prepare answers to the following questions:

1. What are the important elements of a faculty development program in the use of instructional technology?

2. How can we create a support program that will encourage enthusiastic faculty participation?

3. How will we know if the training program was successful?