General Information

Mission and Vision
The Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at the University of Delaware in Dover offers opportunities for intellectual development, cultural stimulation, personal growth and social interaction for people age 50+ in an educational cooperative.

Members volunteer their wealth of talent and experience in planning and implementing high quality educational experiences to form an educational cooperative. The members are the instructors and students, and through a committee structure guide the operating policies, develop curriculum and help with daily operations. No educational prerequisites are needed and there are no grades or exams—just learning for the fun of it.

Schedule
Classes are conducted in the Modern Maturity Center in Dover on Tuesdays and Thursdays during the day for a 10-week semester. The Spring 2015 semester begins Tuesday, January 27, 2015 and ends Thursday, April 2, 2015. Each class meets once a week for approximately one hour and 15 minutes. A full calendar is located on the inside of the back cover.

Membership
Membership is open to men and women 50 years of age and to members’ spouses or partners at any age. Whether your formal education ended early in life or includes advanced degrees, we welcome you. An interest in learning is all that is required.

Members complete a registration form and pay the membership fee for the full year or the current semester. Full year memberships begin with fall registration and expire on September 1 of the following year. Full year memberships include fall and spring semesters and are only available for purchase during the fall semester. Single semester memberships begin upon registration for the fall or spring semester and expire on the first day of the subsequent semester.

Member Benefits
• Register for as many classes as you like.
• Participate in Osher sponsored trips.
• Enjoy our Thursday lunchtime speaker series.
• Audit one UD credit course in fall and spring semester on a space available basis without paying tuition. Does not include online/distance learning courses, Associate in Arts program, Master of Arts in Liberal Studies courses, certificate programs or UD travel/study programs. All relevant fees apply.
• Discount on computer software.
• Internet access, an email account and virus protection via the UD system (full year membership only).

Course Registration
Have you tried our online registration?
You may register for as many courses as you like, but please only sign up for those you intend to take—and DO NOT sign up for multiple courses in the same time slot.

Rank your courses in order of priority by clearly filling in the Course Selection Form (page 22 or 24). Be sure to include your course code, course title and day/time for each class.

All courses have a limited number of seats, so use your priorities wisely.

No course assignments will be made before the priority registration deadline, Thursday, January 8, at 2 p.m. After the deadline, registrations will be processed in this order:

- First priority course selections, then second priority course selections, etc.
- If at any point priority selections exceed available seats, assignments will be made by random draw.

  – Waiting list—Members who were not enrolled in a class during the previous semester because of over-subscription will be given preference this semester if the identical class is offered again. However, you must register for the class by the priority registration deadline and rank the class as your first priority on your registration form.

- Registrations received after the priority deadline will be processed on a space-available basis.
- Registrations will continue to be accepted after the semester begins.

You may register by mailing the Membership Registration Form and Priority Selection Form to the address shown at the top of the form. Additional forms are available at www.lifelonglearning.udel.edu/dover or by calling 302-736-7450.

In-person registration is also available in the Osher Dover Lifelong Learning Office at the Modern Maturity Center (Tuesdays and Thursdays, 9 a.m.-2 p.m.). Registration by telephone is not available.

Financial Assistance

Need-based partial scholarships are available. For scholarship information, contact the program coordinator at 302-736-7450 to schedule an appointment.

Travel

Osher Lifelong Learning sponsors trips to enhance our educational experience at a reasonable cost to members. Many are one-day trips associated with particular courses. Information about these trips, including sign-up dates will be posted on the bulletin board. Members have first priority, and a surcharge is required of non-members. Once final payments have been made there are no refunds.

Refunds

Membership fees will be refunded prior to the end of the second week of the semester. Refund requests must be submitted in writing to the Osher office. A $15 processing charge will be deducted from all refund requests received after the first day of classes.

Trip and activity refund requests will only be accepted prior to the event and must be submitted in writing to the Osher office. Acceptance of refund requests will be granted based on the required minimum number of participants needed to cover the costs of the event. Once Osher has made final payments for trips and activities there will be no refunds.

Refunds may take up to six weeks to process. Questions should be directed to the Osher office.

Gifts

While we calculate membership fees to cover our operating costs, we always have a need for additional and upgraded audiovisual equipment, computers and classroom teaching aids. Many of those items are paid from the Gift Fund. We are happy to receive your donation to the Gift Fund for a specific use or, preferably, unrestricted so your Council can focus them on our greatest needs. You can include a gift with your registration. For more information on how to make these tax-deductible gifts, contact the Osher office at 302-736-7450.

Inclement Weather

Classes are canceled whenever Modern Maturity Center activities are canceled due to inclement weather. Please visit www.lifelonglearning.udel.edu/dover for weather updates or cancellations, or call the Osher office at 302-736-7450.

Books and Supplies

Most courses do not require purchased books or supplies. Course descriptions list textbooks and other supplies if suggested for the course. The cost of these materials is the responsibility of the student.

Location and Parking

Classes are held at the Modern Maturity Center at 1121 Forrest Avenue (Route 8) in Dover.

The Modern Maturity Center has accessible, abundant and free parking. Handicapped parking is readily available in the main parking lot.

Lunch

Discussion and friendship are important elements of the lifelong learning community. Members are encouraged to continue their discussions and become better acquainted during our noon lunch period. You may bring your lunch or purchase lunch in the Modern Maturity Center cafeteria.

Guests

Visitors and prospective members (over the age of 50) who wish to become familiar with our program are welcome to visit on a single day. Please visit the office to pick up an ID badge. Auditing classes for the day is encouraged given available classroom space and approval from the instructor(s).

Opportunities

As an educational cooperative, the success of the program depends on engaged and enthusiastic volunteers. Members are encouraged to offer new course ideas, serve as instructors and serve on committees in support of the program. Active participation in the lifelong learning program is an excellent way to develop new friendships and be part of an exciting and dynamic learning community.

To volunteer, please complete the “I would like to be actively involved” section on the registration form, or contact the Dover program coordinator at 302-736-7450, Modern Maturity Center, 1121 Forrest Avenue, Dover, 19904 or email LLL-dover@udel.edu.

Art

AA121 STICKS AND STRING
Thursdays, 9 a.m.–10:15 a.m.
Dates: 10 Sessions, January 29–April 2
Instructor: Kathleen Dunn

This course will introduce participants to the basics of knitting, casting on and off, making the knit stitch, purl stitch, increasing, decreasing, measuring gauge, reading patterns, yarn labeling, tools and their uses. While working on learning and improving knitting skills the class will discuss knitting’s history and the various types and approaches to knitting in different cultures. This class will be hands-on with individual assistance as needed. Resources for assistance while not in class will be provided and practice between sessions will be necessary. Every attempt will be made to incorporate special interests of participants into the class work. First projects will be a simple hat (men’s or women’s) or a scarf (men’s or women’s). Projects will require minimal material and expense and can be made out of materials you may have on hand. Cost of materials is $15.

Class is limited to 10 students.

Kathleen Dunn is a retired teacher of home economics, computer programming and technology. During the height of the space shuttle program, she taught a graduate school course for educators in aerospace education at the University of Alabama in Huntsville. She also was technology coordinator for a Delaware school district and Delaware’s Christa McAuliffe Fellow for a project that introduced image processing to Delaware schools. She has been teaching knitting for 46 years and especially enjoys cabled and ski sweaters or lace. She also creates her own patterns. Her retirement project is to earn the Master Hand Knitter certificate from the Knitting Guild Association. About 300 knitters worldwide have achieved this level of proficiency. Kathleen is about two-thirds of the way there.

AA122 DIGITAL PHOTOGRAPHY BASICS
Tuesdays, 10:30 a.m.–11:45 a.m.
Dates: 5 Sessions, January 27–February 24
Instructor: Deano Nicolo

This is a beginner’s course for digital photography. You will learn how to operate a digital camera, as well as how to use shooting modes and camera controls. We will discuss composition, lighting, depth of field and lens construction. Using PowerPoint and videos, we will learn to see the effects of various elements of both a good photo and a bad photo. Bring your own digital camera to class for a hands on learning experience. Cameras will not be provided for this course.

Class is limited to 15 students.

Deano Nicolo studied industrial/commercial photography at Philadelphia Community College and studied nature photography under Paul Clark and professional portraiture at the Winona School of Professional Photography. As a member of the Guild of Professional Photographers of Delaware Valley, he won the Berry & Homer award for Best Salon Print titled Horses at Dawn. His experience includes photographing weddings, executive and children’s portraiture, model portfolios and aircrew photography for the U.S. Navy. Artistically, his works have shown at two galleries. Deano enjoys photographing nature, old architecture, military aircraft and abstract images.

Thursdays, 10:30 a.m.–11:45 a.m.
Dates: 5 Sessions, January 29–February 26
Instructor: Deano Nicolo

This course is designed for owners of advanced and DSLR types of cameras. We will discuss use of filters, various interchangeable lens types and their functions. The class participants will determine the photography subject they enjoy photographing and we will study the techniques required to capture the best images. Additional subjects covered will be white balance, composition, etc. NOTE: Sorry, no “point and shoot” cameras allowed for this class.

Class is limited to 15 students.

Deano Nicolo. See course AA122 for instructor’s information.

AA130  FUNDAMENTALS OF DRAWING

Tuesdays, 1 p.m.–3:45 p.m.
Dates: 10 Sessions, January 27–March 31
Instructor: Jan Miller

Introduction and fine tuning of current skills of design, composition, perspective, dimension and texture with color pencils, charcoal and fine ink. Beginning and intermediate skills welcome. A list of supplies will be distributed. Approximate supply cost will be $30 for this class.

Class is limited to 12 students.

Jan Miller has over two years’ experience teaching at the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at the University of Delaware. She has 55 years of study and practice in painting, has taken many college level classes and has taught general and private lessons in various venues. Jan retired as a Registered Radiologic Technologist where she worked at the Peninsula Regional Medical Center.

AA155  INTRODUCTION TO NORTHERN RENAISSANCE ART

Tuesdays, 1 p.m.–2:15 p.m.
Dates: 10 Sessions, January 27–March 31
Instructor: Art McLaughlin

This course will focus on the concepts and historical factors which contributed to the development of the transition from the Gothic style to the Renaissance style in northern European painting. Emphasis will be on the well-known painters of Germany and the Netherlands. Some artists covered will be Dürer, the van Eyks, Bosch, Gropius, and Pieter Bruegel the Elder. We will briefly discuss Renaissance painting in France and England.

Class is limited to 28 students.

Art McLaughlin holds B.A.s in both political science and art history from the University of Delaware. He is currently a graduate student in art history at the University of Delaware. He also holds an A.S. in respiratory therapy and an M.S. in community health and wellness administration. In addition, he is author of six textbooks on medically-related topics and a National League for Nursing approved college instructor in science.

AA158 SYMBOLS FROM NATURE IN RENAISSANCE PAINTING

Thursdays, 2:30 p.m.–3:45 p.m.
Dates: 5 Sessions, January 29–February 26
Instructor: Art McLaughlin

Nature in the form of flowers and other plants, fruits, animals and insects was used to convey specific meanings in paintings, most often during the Renaissance period, to imply human attributes and messages to the viewer. Many of these were religious in intent, many not. Both the Italian and Northern Renaissance will be covered. We will examine examples of these natural symbols as used by a great number of artists through discussion and the use of images.

Class is limited to 28 students.

Art McLaughlin. See course AA155 for instructor’s information.

AA166 OPEN STUDIO WITH INSTRUCTION

Tuesdays, 10:30 a.m.–12:45 p.m.
Dates: 10 Sessions, January 27–March 31
Instructor: Jan Miller

This course is designed for painting and drawing students to receive instruction and dedicate time to work on ongoing projects and assignments with an instructor available. Students can complete unfinished works, start new projects, work independently and practice recently acquired skills. Students work in mediums of their choice and the instructor and other classmates will be available for guidance.

Class is limited to 12 students.

Jan Miller. See course AA130 for instructor’s information.

AA167 BEGINNING IN OILS

Tuesdays, 1 p.m.–3:45 p.m.
Dates: 5 Sessions, March 3–March 31
Instructor: Liisa Trala

You always thought you'd like to try oil painting, but you haven’t had the courage to take that first step. This class is for you! We will do a simple landscape painting together, and you will be able to add your personal touch while learning oil painting basics. The approximate cost of supplies will be $10. You will receive a supply list the first class.

Class is limited to 6 students.

Liisa Trala has a lifetime of artistic endeavors which include working as a draftsperson doing detail and illustrations as well as a cake decorator (painting with icing). January 2012, Liisa took her first step, and signed up for an oil painting class. Just over a year later she entered the Delaware State Senior Art Exhibit and won a third place novice ribbon.

AA173  OPEN STUDIO—KNITTING

Thursdays, 10:30 a.m.–11:45 a.m.
Dates: 10 Sessions, January 29–April 2
Instructor: Kathleen Dunn

This course is designed for beginner through advanced knitters to work on projects or practice techniques with the support of an instructor. This is a good opportunity to get back to unfinished projects that have lingered in your knitting bag because you don’t know what to do next or how to fix a problem. The instructor can also provide support for those wishing to try out a new technique or unfamiliar project. Participants will need to provide their own materials, tools, and patterns. May be taken concurrently with Sticks and String.

Class is limited to 20 students.

Kathleen Dunn. See course AA121 for instructor’s information.

HX238 TURNING POINTS OF THE CIVIL WAR

Thursdays, 10:30 a.m.–11:45 a.m.
Dates: 10 Sessions, January 29–April 2
Instructor: Dan Pritchett

This class will look at the key events that determined the outcome of the Civil War, and how each one was crucial to the ultimate Northern victory/Confederate defeat. Ken Burns’ series, The Civil War, will help bring these remarkable stories to life.

Class is limited to 28 students.

Dan Pritchett received a B.S. in social studies education, Concord College; and an M.A. in American history, University of Delaware. Dan held a teaching position in the Capital School District, where he taught American history for 34 years. He later taught at Wilmington and Delaware State Universities. He is a member of the Lincoln Forum, one of the foremost national organizations dedicated to the study of Abraham Lincoln and his era.

NEW!
HX239 THE UNIQUE QUALITIES OF DELAWARE

Tuesdays, 2:30 p.m.–3:45 p.m.
Dates: 5 Sessions, March 3–March 31
Instructor: Caroline Baxter

This course will explore the unique aspects of Delaware’s culture, politics and environment. Using local authorities, the class will hear interesting details on major topics including Delaware’s Native American population, agriculture, tourism—NASCAR to pumpkins, horseshoe crabs and migratory birds.

Class is limited to 25 students.

Caroline Baxter is a retired public employee with a degree in business administration. A native Delawarean, Caroline has always had a keen interest in its history.

NEW!

Thursdays, 9 a.m.–10:15 a.m.
Dates: 5 Sessions, January 29–February 26
Instructor: Bill Jones

Using lecture, PowerPoint and the Ken Burns’ film Lewis and Clark—The Journey of the Corps of Discovery, we will look in depth at the epic journey that was the Lewis and Clark expedition. We will discuss the hardships, the incredible land that was explored and what happened to these men afterward. We will also look in depth at Sacajawea, the incredible teenager without whom the voyage of discovery would have failed.

Class is limited to 28 students.

Bill Jones received a B.S. from Cornell University. He is retired from DuPont and Change Management Consulting. Bill has a strong interest in physical, biological and environmental sciences. He also enjoys travel, always with an eye toward environmental science.

HU239  IMBIBING SHAKESPEARE’S SONNETS

Tuesdays, 9 a.m.–10:15 a.m.
Dates: 5 Sessions, March 3–March 31
Instructor: Russell Endo

Last year our class explored the journey and turns of A.R. Ammons’ Tape for the Turn of the Year. This semester, inspired by Ammons’ example, we will begin to explore Shakespeare’s sonnets, with an aim to get into the sounds and meaning of English language itself. We will do this the old-fashioned way—with class reading, recitation, and use of our collaborative vestige of experience. If there is time (in other words, we will be discriminating readers even with regard to Shakespeare!) we will also explore sonnets of Donne, Ben Johnson, Herbert and Hopkins as well as contemporary versions. Please bring your favorite sonnet(s) with you.

Class is limited to 15 students.

Russ Endo, a professional poet, received his B.A. in combined literature from Yale College. He obtained a juris doctor from the University of Pennsylvania Law School. Russ has been published in many publications including Journal of Biological Chemistry, American Friends Delegation Report on China after Tiananmen Square, American Poetry Review, The Antioch Review, Ploughshares and The Philadelphia Inquirer. His poem Susumu, My Name was the basis for a jazz orchestration by Sumi Tonooka that appeared on PBS. He currently sits on the boards of Wilmington Friends School and Greene Street Friends School in Philadelphia.

HU240  THE CATHEDRAL

Thursdays, 10:30 a.m.–11:45 a.m.
Dates: 10 Sessions, January 29–April 2
Instructor: Bill Jones

Europe is the cradle of Gothic architecture. With the assistance of The Great Courses’ The Cathedral, we will explore the art and architecture of the great cathedrals of France and England. We will study the development of Gothic architecture, the sculpture, the great open spaces, and stained-glass windows that define these magnificent Gothic structures. We will also look at Gothic architecture in today’s world.

Class is limited to 28 students.

Bill Jones. See course HX240 for instructor’s information.

NEW!

LA110  BASIC COMMUNICATION IN FRENCH

Tuesdays, 9 a.m.–10:15 a.m.
Dates: 5 Sessions, March 3–March 31
Instructor: Alice Cataldi

In this interactive course, participants will acquire the basic language skills needed for carrying out a variety of language functions. They will practice asking questions, making requests, thanking and apologizing, expressing needs or pointing out problems and asking for clarification. No textbook or prior knowledge of language is required.

Class is limited to 15 students.

Alice Cataldi’s first language of literacy is French. As such, she is passionate about the subject matter she has taught for many years. She retired from the University of Delaware where she taught French and trained future teachers of languages. In addition to promoting the French language and culture, Alice enjoys travel, visiting museums, reading, gardening and cooking ethnic meals for family and friends. She is the recipient of numerous teaching and advocacy awards. In recognition of her contributions to the promotion of the French culture and language, the French government named Alice a Chevalier Knight of the Academic Palms.
LA203  FRENCH CONVERSATION—WORLD WAR I REVISITED

Tuesdays, 10:30 a.m.–11:45 a.m.
Dates: 5 Sessions, March 3–March 31
Instructor: Alice Cataldi
In this highly interactive course, authentic letters written by a World War I Belgian soldier to a 10-year-old American girl will serve as the backdrop for stimulating conversation. Participants will become familiar with the highlights of the war by means of original stories written by the instructor. This course is a continuation of the class from the fall of 2014. Four semesters of French or the equivalent are recommended.
Class is limited to 10 students.
Alice Cataldi. See course LA110 for instructor’s information.

LA204  GETTING TO KNOW YOU

Tuesdays, 10:30 a.m.–11:45 a.m.
Dates: 5 Sessions, January 27–February 24
Instructor: Charlotte Ward
In this interactive course, participants will enhance their French communicative skills through practice of their existing skills and add to their lexical and grammatical repertoire. Students will practice sharing about themselves and learning about others in the class. Prerequisite: minimum of two semesters of French or equivalent.
Class is limited to 10 students.
Charlotte Ward was born in Nice, France and holds advanced degrees in both French and Spanish. She has taught both languages for over three decades both in New Jersey and in Delaware. An active leader in language organizations, she has served as co-founder and President of the Alliance Francaise and as the President of the Delaware Council for the Teaching of Foreign Languages. She is also an aspiring poet and enjoys writing songs.

LS131  WHO IS AFRAID OF CONTROVERSIAL ISSUES?

Tuesdays, 10:30 a.m.–11:45 a.m.
Dates: 10 Sessions, January 27–March 31
Instructor: Robert Lathey
This course deals with issues that may present deep conflicts among us. Often these controversial issues can generate strong opinions and emotions. The task for the class members is to develop a greater understanding of how their own opinions have developed over the years. Likewise, to have a greater understanding of how others have come to their opinions and to learn to be open to listening to opposing views.
Class is limited to 15 students.
Robb Lathey was a clinical psychologist for 35 years. He received his undergraduate degree from Syracuse University, his master’s degree from Columbia University and his doctorate from the University of North Texas. He has worked in a number of clinical settings, including private practice and community mental health. He has taught courses in group process at Wright State University in Ohio.

LS140  THE WRITER’S WORKSHOP—A WORK IN PROGRESS

Tuesdays, 9 a.m.–10:15 a.m.
Dates: 5 Sessions, March 3–March 31
Instructor: Gail Johnston
A classroom workshop for writers with some experience in writing, who want to fine tune their skills in a working setting with other writers. Class will consist of students working on their own writing projects with individual presentation to the class, for critiquing, 1-2 times a semester. Brief review of writing techniques by instructor; class discussion and participation each session. Students will come to the first class with a writing sample for presentation. Focus will be on reminiscence writing.
Prerequisites: Students should have taken previous writing courses or have had previous writing experience.
Class is limited to 10 students.

Gail Johnston was born in Baltimore, Md., and lived there most of her adult life. She graduated from the University of Maryland with degrees in sociology and English literature and later obtained her graduate degree in social work. Although she worked for many years as a geriatric social worker, she always felt writing was her true avocation. She especially enjoys poetry, journaling and personal essay. After retiring she wrote and published a memoir of her childhood, Make a Lot of Noise and Don’t Go on the Porch. In 2009, she published a collection of poetry and essays, Early Evening. Some of her poetry and essays have appeared in the Delmarva Quarterly and other local publications. Astrology and enneagram interpretations have been hobbies for some time.

PERFORMING ARTS

PA114–1 INTRODUCTION TO PIANO

Thursdays, 1 p.m.–2:15 p.m.
Dates: 10 Sessions, January 29–April 2
Instructor: Noriko Palms

This course will provide learners at a beginner level the fundamentals of understanding and identifying written music and its application to the keyboard. The teaching method will emphasize individual instruction and independent practice. Through this course, students will develop basic keyboarding skills and learn fundamentals of music theory.

Class is limited to 6 students.

Noriko Palms received her B.A. in Education from Heian (St. Agnes) University in Kyoto, Japan and from the University of Tamagawa in Tokyo, Japan. For many years, Ms. Palms has taught education, music, piano, modeling, art and Japanese language to pupils aged pre-K to adult. She has taught through the military in the United States and in various foreign countries. Noriko enjoys playing classical piano, orchestral music, painting and teaching. Her awards and honors include the CORE Educational Attainment Award (2014), serving as the coordinator for the Asian-Pacific Heritage Show, and winning first place at the Artist & Craftsman show.
NEW!

PA115 MAHLER, PUCCINI & RACHMANINOFF
Tuesdays, 1 p.m.–2:15 p.m.
Dates: 10 Sessions, January 27–March 31
Instructor: George Christensen

Examining orchestral and operatic music of the late Romantic period; reflecting the past, examining the present and anticipating the future from a 1914 perspective.

Class is limited to 25 students.

NEW!

PA117 THE HISTORY OF MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS
Tuesdays, 9 a.m.–10:15 a.m.
Dates: 10 Sessions, January 27–March 31
Instructor: Winfried Mroz

In this course we will explore the origins of instruments from the stone age to our time. There will be pictures and live and recorded demonstrations. The scope of the course will be limited to Western and Middle Eastern instruments.

Class is limited to 28 students.

Winfried Mroz is a retired gynecologist with an interest in history and music. He is co-founder of the Dover Symphony Orchestra and co-founder of the Dover English Country Dancers. His courses at Osher Lifelong Learning range from the Crusades, German, Benjamin Franklin and the history of musical instruments. Win has played various string instruments all his life.

NEW!

PA116 RECORDER ENSEMBLE
Tuesdays, 10:30 a.m.–11:45 a.m.
Dates: 10 Sessions, January 27–March 31
Instructor: Carol Neild

Students will continue their progress and increase their skill in playing the recorder. Class will cover folk music as well as music of the Renaissance and Baroque periods. Prerequisite: students should have taken a past semester’s recorder class or have equivalent proficiency on the recorder.

Class is limited to 28 students.

Carol Neild is a retired elementary teacher/reading specialist. She has been active in musical activities since childhood, singing and playing several instruments from choirs, school band and orchestra to community symphony. Nearly 30 years ago she became involved with early music and has attended numerous workshops as well as Pinewoods and Amherst Early Music weeks. As a founding member of the Holly Consort, weekly rehearsals and a few “gigs” a year continue this interest.
RECREATION

RR100  WALK AND TALK

Wednesdays, 11 a.m.–2 p.m.
Dates: 5 Sessions, March 4–April 1
Instructor: Gini Tate
First session will meet at the Modern Maturity Center

Enjoy guided exploratory brisk and lively walks of familiar and not so familiar local areas. Meet new and old friends along the way. All walks are approximately two miles or more. Possible walking locations are historical sites and trails in Delaware. All registered walkers will receive detailed information prior to the course start date. The walks are usually two hours or less.

Class is limited to 15 students.

Gini Tate earned her R.N. from the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania. Gini was an ICU nurse for 36 years and a certified perianesthesia nurse for seven years before retiring in 2011. She became a student of Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at the University of Delaware in Dover in the winter of 2011. She has a love of nature and the environment and looks forward to sharing that interest with those joining her on guided tours of both natural and historic sites throughout Kent County.

Unless noted otherwise, all courses are ten weeks in length: January 27–April 2
First five weeks: January 27–February 26 • Last five weeks: March 3–April 2

Important Registration Information

HOW TO REGISTER

- Rank your classes in order of priority by clearly filling in the Course Selection Form
- Be sure to include the course code, course title and day/time for each class.
- Select only the number of courses that you intend to take

BECAUSE

- Registration forms received by the priority deadline (January 8) will be processed this way:
  - Assignments will be made based on the priorities you indicated on your form
    - Every effort will be made to accommodate your first choice
    - The smaller the class limit the greater likelihood of a waiting list
    - If a class had a waiting list in the past, it probably will this semester as well
- Only after priorities have been processed, a computerized lottery will attempt to resolve any conflicts
- Registrations received after the priority deadline (January 8) will be processed on a space-available basis
- Registrations will not be processed until a membership fee is paid
