H02 MIDSUMMER MYSTERIES
Wednesday: 10:30 a.m.–noon
Instructor: Rebecca Worley
What’s better than a good mystery novel for a summer read, especially newly published novels that have made the bestseller lists? This summer’s selections include A.J. Finn’s The Woman in the Window, Louise Penny’s Glass Houses and Martha Grimes’ The Knowledge.

J02 HAIR IN SIX RELIGIOUS TRADITIONS
Tuesday: 10:30 a.m.–noon
Instructor: William Innes
Hair has been used since ancient times as a way to signify one’s internal spiritual journey. The specific manifestation varies by tradition and culture but is consistently present. We will examine the six largest faith traditions and look for common themes.

J01 CAN WE OBEY OUR WAY INTO HEAVEN?*
Wednesday: 9 a.m.–10:15 a.m.
Instructor: Joseph Theranger
The parable of the prodigal son provides an example of the dilemma that the first Christian communities faced. The good son obeyed his father yet, in the end, seemed to lack love and happiness; the prodigal son found both. This course looks into the roles that love and the law played in the development of Christian morality. Limited to 30 students. Required text will be provided to students.

K01 FLASH FICTION EXPERIENCE*
Tuesday: 9 a.m.–10:15 a.m.
Instructor: Jean Youkers
Practice writing and sharing short stories, compressed to 250–1000 words. The flash genre challenges writers to develop intriguing plots and characters using precise words. We will mercilessly chop out sentences and evict unnecessary words while having a fun time. Limited to 12 students.

K02 INLAWS AND OUTLAWS: EXPLORING THROUGH WRITING
Tuesday: 10:30 a.m.–noon
Instructor: Susan Dion
Focus on characters who have entered our lives or inhabited the stories of an earlier generation through kinship, marriage or close relationships (rather than strict familial lines). Weekly writing suggestions are presented, including one prior to the first session. Limited to 12 students.

---

Gift Certificates

Gift certificates for memberships are available online at www.lifelonglearning.udel.edu/gift-certificate or in the Office. Memberships make thoughtful gifts for retirements, birthdays, anniversaries and holidays. Gift certificates are non-refundable and may be used only for the semester for which they are purchased.

Refunds

For full refunds, requests must be made in writing before July 10, 2018. Refund requests will be processed as soon as administratively possible. If you registered online, please include a copy of your email receipt with the request.

Parking hangtags must be returned with the written refund request. Full refunds will be granted prior to the beginning of the semester for those who cannot attend and those who have chosen courses that have no openings.

No membership fee will be refunded because a request to audit a University course cannot be honored.

Refund requests may be submitted after the start of classes for withdrawals caused by illness, pressing family situations or other circumstances beyond a member’s control. Refund requests received after the start of the semester will be prorated based on the date that the written request and parking hangtag are received in the Office. Refund requests will be accepted only during the semester for which the refund is requested.

Membership fees may not be transferred to another semester.

How are courses assigned?

Classes are assigned by a computer-based allocation process. All registrations—whether online, in-person or mailed in—received by the May 11 priority registration deadline will be included in the allocation pool. When demand exceeds availability in popular courses, the allocation process takes into account a variety of factors, including the priority you’ve assigned to the class and whether or not you’ve taken the class before. Registrations received after May 11 will be processed on a first-come, first-served basis, subject to class availability.
