

New ONR No Funds Extension Guidance

The Office of Naval Research (ONR) has recently released new guidance pertaining to No Funds Extensions, effective immediately. The new guidance clearly spells out the maximum extension time allowable and what parties need to be involved at each step. All ONR awards will be subject to the new revisions. Please discuss this with any faculty in your unit that have awards from the Office of Naval Research so that they can plan accordingly regarding their award. Please refer to the chart below for more detail:
