RETURN TO THE HOUSING
APPLICATION

The Student Housing Contract is binding 3 business days after you select your space.

If you do not select a space before April 1, you will be bound to the Housing Contract as of April 1, 2017.

Complete Application

You will receive an email with your assigned time slot. This is the earliest that you can enter My Housing to select your space on campus for 2017-2018. Priority for room selection will be based on class year, then cumulative credits, then your randomly assigned number. Group priority is averaged.

Your Guide to

INITIAL ROOM SELECTION

You’ve been notified that you will receive a time slot for March.

TIME SLOT

If you would like to make any changes to your roommate group, apply to a Living Learning Community or Other Housing Option or make any other changes to your housing application.

CANCEL

You have until November 1, 2016 to cancel your Housing Application and receive a full refund of your prepayment. To be released from the Housing Application, submit a request for release. You are not bound to the Student Housing Contract until Spring 2017.

OPEN ROOM SELECTION

Return to My Housing after your time slot opens and select your space on campus for 2017-2018.

ROOM SELECTION

You will be able to select your space at the end of March, or later in the Spring semester or early summer.

You have the option to participate in Mutual Room Exchange in August and exchange spaces on campus with another student.
