Context of the Position:

The Graduate Assistant (GA) for Community Development works to support Residence Life and Housing in-hall staff and major Residence Life and Housing initiatives and events. The GA serves as an advisor and facilitator of residence hall and departmental student engagement opportunities. Within each residence hall, opportunities exist for students to become involved and make meaningful contributions that will improve the experience of residence hall students. The primary role of the GA is to support those efforts, which includes advising a group of student leaders who represent the student population within a residential area and assisting with the execution of initiatives which provide residents the opportunity to take on leadership roles and make contributions to their floor community. Where applicable, the GA also serves as a member of an area leadership team comprised of professional staff who guide the efforts of student-staff Resident Assistants in supporting and developing residence hall students. The GA can expect to plan and execute training and development opportunities for Resident Assistants and student leaders. Most of these duties are expected to be coordinated and facilitated in-person in the residence halls and assistantship hours will be non-traditional in nature. The Graduate Assistant for Community Development is supervised by a Residence Hall Coordinator (RHC) and receives direction from the Associate/Assistant Directors.

Major Responsibilities:

Community Development Support
- Promote and support residence hall programmatic efforts, including in-hall engagement opportunities and Living Learning Community (LLC) initiatives
- Responsible for the oversight and approval of student-initiated programs, which provide funding for residents to put on community development activities for their community. Assist residents and student-staff in purchasing and logistics support for their community development activities
- Meet individually with students interested in planning events for their community to serve as an advisor and source of support in the execution of their ideas
- Work with the RHC to build culture and capacity around the self-governing community structure. Coordinate, in conjunction with Resident Assistant mentors, monthly development opportunities (through meetings and one-on-ones) for floor-level student captains
- Provide one-on-one coaching and support to student-staff on creating and sustaining a culture of high engagement in their communities
- Serve as a liaison and partner to the Residence Life and Housing Engagement Centers, seeking to promote Engagement Center events and activities to residence hall students
- Support departmental priorities and major initiatives, providing on-site support and assisting in the marketing and communication of these efforts
Advising
- Serve as the primary advisor for up to 12 undergraduate students on the CC by providing one-on-one mentoring and attending CC meetings to assist them in goal attainment
- In conjunction with RHC supervisor, coordinate recruitment and retention efforts for Community Council (CC)
- Provide budget support and oversight to the CC executive board
- Work with the CC executive board to identify student needs through seeking feedback from residential students and utilizing feedback to champion advocacy efforts to improve the student experience in the residence hall
- Participate actively in monthly departmental workshops designed to increase advising skills and capacity

Conflict and Behavior Management
- Support RHC supervisor in promoting initiatives designed to build capacity in residence hall students to employ effective interpersonal skills in their daily interactions with fellow community members
- In consultation with supervisor, meet with students experiencing challenging roommate situations to mediate conflict and work to come to mutually agreed upon solutions
- Meet individually with students accused of violating Residence Hall Regulations and issue appropriate educational sanctions, as directed by RHC supervisor

Building and Area Leadership
- Attend weekly staff meetings and co-facilitate team-building and development activities for Resident Assistants
- Contribute to the area team by attending scheduled monthly or bi-monthly meetings with professional staff in addition to weekly one-on-one meetings with RHC supervisor
- Coordinate or oversee lounge reservation process for students and groups requesting space usage
- Utilize departmental assessment measures to identify areas of growth for the building, specifically focusing on awareness of and participation in engagement opportunities
- Assist in the execution of the program plan, a year-long educational plan of initiatives executed to promote student learning in the building, by implementing initiatives directly or by coordinating implementation with groups of RAs as assigned
- Assist in opening and closing of residence halls as directed by RHC supervisor at the beginning and end of fall, spring, and winter sessions, as well as vacation periods
- Perform other duties as directed based on departmental, area, or in-hall needs
