In recognition of the importance of promoting diversity, the University has established the Louis L. Redding Diversity Award. This award recognizes the promotion, enhancement or implementation of diversity by University individuals, units, departments, or organizations within the University community. This honor acknowledges especially noteworthy contributions and initiatives that result in significant change in the campus climate and/or composition. The award consists of a plaque and a $1,000 gift to the Morris Library in the recipient's honor. The recipient is honored at an annual luncheon.
