

delaware voices

In celebration of Black History Month
Sponsored by the Department of Black American Studies at University of Delaware

Please join us for stimulating conversation to experience the artistry of Delaware Native and UD English Alum Rachel Eliza Griffiths as she reads from her latest collection of poetry, "The Required Distance," on Friday, February 18, 2011, @ 6:00pm

at

Christina Cultural Arts Center, Inc.
Clifford Brown Performance Center, 2nd floor
705 N. Market St., Wilmington, DE
302-652-0101 (ring exterior buzzer for building access).

Directions: From I95N, take DE-52/Delaware Ave. exit. Turn right at W. 9th St. Turn right at N. Market St.
From I95S, take DE-52/Delaware Ave. exit. Merge onto W. 11th St. Turn right at N. Market St.

Parking: Street parking is free after 6pm & available on Market St., Shipley St. & Orange St. or in the open air lot on 7th & Shipley St. after 6pm. Paid lots are on 9th & Shipley Sts. & The Doubletree Hotel on 8th & King Sts.

For more information, please call the Black American Studies Department at 302.831.2897. Seating is limited so please RSVP by Tuesday, February 15th.