English as a Second Language Evening Classes

The outstanding quality of the University of Delaware English Language Institute's instruction is available in an evening, semi-intensive format to accommodate the busy schedules of Delaware, Maryland and Pennsylvania residents. The ELI's program meets the needs of professionals, but all residents, immigrants, Au Pairs, and J2/F2 visa holders will also benefit.

Schedule: The Evening Program is offered 4 times per year. (See reverse for dates)

Days: Monday and Wednesday or Tuesdays and Thursdays (Students will be notified two weeks prior to the course start date)

Costs: Written & Spoken English—7:00 pm to 9:30 pm
 $650 tuition for 9 week session, plus costs of books (costs vary)

Written English Only—7:00 pm to 8:10 pm
 $375 tuition for 9 week session, plus costs of books (costs vary)

Spoken English Only—8:20 pm to 9:30 pm
 $375 tuition for 9 week session, plus costs of books (costs vary)

Placement tests are given on the first night of each session. Students are required to arrive at 189 West Main Street at 7:00 pm for testing.

Course Description:

Understanding and Using Written & Spoken English addresses all language skill areas; grammar, listening, speaking, reading, writing, pronunciation and vocabulary.

Understanding and Using Written English concentrates on reading, writing, grammar and vocabulary.

Understanding and Using Spoken English concentrates on listening, speaking and pronunciation skills.

Levels:

English I * is designed for beginning to high beginning non-native English speakers. The focus of this class is on giving students the basic skills they need to improve the quality of their daily lives in the U.S. Lessons are presented in "real life" contexts such as shopping, writing letters and e-messages, using the telephone and reading schedules, instructions, labels, and advertisements.

English II * is designed for low intermediate to intermediate students. This course is designed to help students gain a greater understanding of English. Students will work with textbooks and "real life" materials such as newspapers and video clips.

English III * is designed for high intermediate to advanced students. Students study and explore various topics such as cultural differences, professional discourse, utilizing textbooks, articles from newspapers, audiocassettes and videocassettes.

* A minimum enrollment of five students is required for each course to be offered.

Note to Au Pairs: The ELI Semi-Intensive Evening Program meets the visa English study requirement.
