

Alumni Lecture Series

BOSLEY-WARNOCK LECTURE 2012

The Department of History

presents

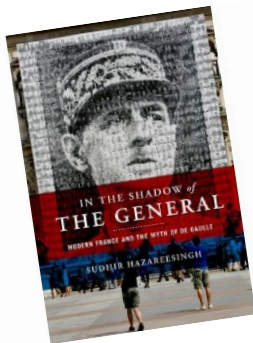

Sudhir Hazareesingh

University Lecturer in Politics and Tutorial Fellow in Politics,

Balliol College, University of Oxford

“Charles de Gaulle: The Making of a Political Hero”

Sudhir Hazareesingh is a leading scholar of modern French history and politics. His many publications include Political Traditions in Modern France (1994), The Legend of Napoleon (2004), The Saint-Napoleon: Celebrations of Sovereignty in Nineteenth-Century France (2004), and most recently, In the Shadow of the General: Modern France and the Myth of De Gaulle, which will be published by Oxford University Press in May 2012. A Fellow of the British Academy, Dr. Hazareesingh's work has also won accolades in France, where the French edition of his book about De Gaulle won the French Senate's Prix d'Histoire for 2010.

Thursday, April 19, 2012

7:30 pm

127 Memorial Hall

Sponsors: UD History Bosley-Warnock Fund, with additional support from UD Faculty Senate Committee on Cultural Activities and Public Events, the European Studies program, and the Department of Political Science and International Relations.

The Lecture is Free and Open to the Public