

INTERNATIONAL NATIONAL education WEEK

World Tour: “You don’t have to go far to experience the globe.”

 Look out for lunch and dinner specials at the dining halls during International Education Week

Sunday Nov 13

7:30 pm | Trabant University Center Theater
English Department International Film Series
Nine Nation Animation

Monday Nov 14

3:30 pm | Trabant Theater

Speaker Coach Luma Mufleh

International Education Week will kick-off with speaker Coach Luma Mufleh to share the inspirational story of her journey helping young refugees from all over the globe learn the strength of a team, depicted in the bestselling book, Outcasts United.

8–11 pm | Clayton Hall

ELI and Residence Life “Dance Around the World”

A Global Dance for UD international and domestic students. Featuring a number of music and dance RSOs to teach students cultural dance moves.

Tuesday Nov 15

 Lunch
Pencader Dining Hall
Street Foods of Greece

5:30 pm | Gore 223

French Club Event:

Native French speaker on Normandy Culture

5:40 pm Book Signing | UD Bookstore (1st Floor)
7 pm Lecture (Doors open at 6:15) | Mitchell Hall
Lecture Dr. Azar Nafisi

The UD community will host Dr. Azar Nafisi, the highly acclaimed author of Reading Lolita in Tehran, which spent 117 weeks on The New York Times best-seller list. The book illustrates her experience as a woman and a professor in the beginning of the Islamic Revolution in Iran. She continues to publish articles, memoirs, and other works based on literature and culture and the effects of culture on individuals. She is currently the executive director of Cultural Conversations at the Foreign Policy Institute of John Hopkins University’s School of Advanced International Students in Washington, DC.

9-10:30pm – George Read North Lounge

Study Abroad Showcase

Students will have the opportunity to meet Study Abroad Ambassadors, Program Coordinators, and representatives from Career Services and learn about many different experiences and gather information so they can sign up for a program in the future.

Wednesday Nov 16

 Lunch
Russell Dining Hall
Le Petit Patisserie
Dinner
Rodney & Kent
International Bazaar

12–1 pm | Elliott Hall Foyer
(Institute for Global Studies)

Global Music Hour:

Join the Institute for Global Studies in celebrating International Education through musical performances by Vocal Point.

7–9 pm | George Read North Lounge

International Food Festival & Cultural Game Night

Residence Life’s Cultural Language Partner Program (CLP) will host a night of exploring various international food made by our own UD students from their home countries, sharing popular games from their cultures, and CLP students will present a project they have developed through participation in the program. The students will host this event in the George Read North Lounge Wednesday evening and will teach UD international and domestic students about a variety of cultures.

Thursday Nov 17

 Lunch
Kent Dining Hall
Spanish Flare
Dinner
Pencader & Russell
International Bazaar

5–9pm | Trabant MPR

International Talent & Fashion Show

ELI and Residence Life annual international Talent and Fashion show. The event will begin with the Talent show and cultural displays from countries around the world by international and domestic students from 5-7pm, followed by the fashion show of cultural clothing from 7-9pm. Prizes will be raffled off throughout the evening.

Friday Nov 18

 Lunch
Rodney Dining Hall
Middle Eastern Mezze

4–6 pm | Lerner Hall Atrium (Invitation Only)

International Education Week Closing Reception

A reception will be held to close International Education week for staff, faculty and administrators. Refreshments and hors d’oeuvres will be served; and Fulbright Faculty and Salzburg Seminar Participants will be recognized, Janet Louise who has dedicated over 25 years to international education at the ELI in China and Japan, along with Dr. Lesa Griffiths, former director of the Institute for Global Studies.

Sunday Nov 20

7:30 pm | Trabant University Center Theater
English Department International Film Series:
The Match Maker

Sponsored by Institute for Global Studies, English Language Institute, Residence Life, Division of Student Life
Additional Sponsors: International Caucus, Multicultural Student Organization, Student Centers, Office of International Students and Scholars

Supported by SCPAB, SGA, and Honors Program

www.tinyurl.com/UDinternationalweek