

Please join the Department of English for a reading and interview with

Bharati Mukherjee

Wednesday, October 3, 2012 • 5:00 pm
Gore Recital Hall, Roselle Center for the Arts

Reception and book signing immediately following Lobby, Roselle Center for the Arts

Bharati Mukherjee has established herself as a powerful member of the American literary scene. Known for her understated prose style and her depictions of immigrants, particularly women, in North America, Mukherjee has published in a variety of genres, including short stories, novels, nonfiction, and memoir. Her collection The Middleman and Other Stories was awarded the National Book Critics Circle Award for fiction in 1988. Dr. Mukherjee will be reading from her most recent novel, Miss New India, published in 2011.

Photo © Chip Cooper

This event in the "Transnational Encounters" visiting writers series is sponsored by a cornerstone grant from the College of Arts and Science's Interdisciplinary Humanities Research Center (IHRC), and the Department of English. For more information about the "Transnational Encounters" series, see the IHRC's website: <http://www.udel.edu/ihr/>