

CONTINUITY AND CHANGES in GLOBAL AFFAIRS

The Center for Global and Area Studies is proud to announce its Fall Lecture Series. This one-credit, pass/fail class will explore issues of continuities and changes in literature, history, anthropology, politics, economics, among other disciplinary approaches. To understand how societies operate and evolve, it is essential to recognize long-term continuities and discontinuities. The series explores them in different contexts in Africa, Asia, Europe and Latin America, as well as in the Islamic and Jewish world.
