

Ankh R
RENAISSANCE
Corporation
presents

THE Complexities
OF COLOR

DR. MARC LAMONT HILL
Keynote Speaker

Be Heard... OCTOBER 26, 2013

University of Delaware-Mitchell Hall

3:00-6:00pm

SPONSORED BY:

As a response to George Zimmerman's acquittal, the Complexities of Color Summit seeks to engage a diverse audience in a discussion on the role of race in contemporary society. The event includes a keynote by Dr. Marc Lamont Hill, host of HuffPost Live and Our World with Black Enterprise, and Associate Professor of Education at Columbia University's Teachers College, and a panel discussion.

Panelists:

Dr. Yaba Blay
Assistant Professor,
Africana Studies,
Drexel University

Dr. Armando Lara-Millán
Postdoctoral Fellow,
Sociology/Criminology
University of Delaware

Dr. Donald Morton
President and CEO,
Ankh Renaissance
Corporation

Dr. Najuma Smith Pollard
Program Manager,
USC Cecil Murray
Center for Community Engagement

Free and open to the public with a ticket. UD students, faculty and staff may pick up tickets from the Center for Black Culture. All others must register at www.thecolorcomplex.info.

Additional UD supporters:

Cultural Programming Advisory Board, Black Student Union, Black Graduate Student Association, Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., Multicultural Greek Congress, Center for Diversity Studies, Office of Equity and Inclusion and Black American Studies.

For general information call the Center for Black Culture: (302) 831-2991

