

LATINO

HERITAGE

MONTH AND BEYOND 2014

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 18Latino Heritage Month Extravaganza*A 20/20 View of Hispanic America*featuring John Quiñones

7:30 p.m.; Doors open at 6:45 p.m.

Trabant Multipurpose Rooms (A & B)

For over 25 years, Emmy Award-winning broadcast journalist, John Quiñones has worked as a co-anchor and correspondent for "Primetime" and "20/20." Quiñones also anchored a critically acclaimed ABC News special called "Latin Beat," which focused on the impact of the recent population explosion and how it will affect the nation as a whole. More recently, Quiñones' work includes hosting the "Primetime" series "What Would You Do?" This series tests human reactions through a hidden camera as they face real-time ethical and moral dilemmas. Other recent work includes following Mexican immigrants attempting to cross into the United States, polygamous marriages in northern Arizona, and suicide bombers in Israel. Quiñones is also the author of Heroes Among Us: Ordinary People, Extraordinary Choices.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 30Latino Student Welcome

3:30 p.m., Trabant Multipurpose Rooms (A & B)

All first-year and transfer students of Latino heritage are invited to attend this welcome event, which will feature an informative panel discussion and reception. This is an exciting opportunity to meet other students as well as faculty and staff.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 8 (PENCADER & KENT)Latin Food Festival

Come enjoy the authentic flavors of Latin cuisine at the designated University of Delaware dining halls. The food featured in this festival originates from various Latin countries such as Mexico, Spain, Argentina, Nicaragua, Cuba, Columbia, and Ecuador. Russell and Rodney dining halls will offer these dinner options on Thursday, October 9.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 9Crisscrossing the World: Los Angeles Artists & the Global Imagination, 1960–1980

5:30 p.m., 115 Purnell Hall

A specialist of African American, African Diaspora, Latino/a and Latin American art, Professor Kellie Jones (Art History, Columbia University) will discuss the work of Los Angeles's African American artists in an era of creative, cultural, and political ferment.

This Wayne Craven Lecture is hosted and organized by the Department of Art History at the University of Delaware.

For more information visit, http://www.udel.edu/ArtHistory/events/pdf/lecture_series-2014-15

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 10Fiesta Latina

8:00 p.m., Trabant Multipurpose Rooms

A celebration featuring a live Latin band and traditional Latin dances including Samba, Salsa, Cha Cha, Rumba, Mambo, Meringue, Bachata, Tango, and Bolero. Light refreshments will be served.

SPONSORS: Center for Black Culture, Campus Alliance de La Raza, Chi Upsilon Sigma Latin Sorority, HOLA, Career Services Center, Department of Art History, Dining Services, Office of Equity and Inclusion, Residence Life & Housing and Student Life.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 28Cesar Chávez film screening & discussion

6:30 p.m., 100 Kirkbride Hall

This film chronicles the birth of a modern American movement led by famed civil rights leader and labor organizer, Cesar Chávez. Chávez embraced non-violence as he battled greed and prejudice in his struggle for the rights of farm workers. His triumphant journey is a remarkable testament to the power of one individual's ability to change the system.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 1Multi-Ethnic Career Conference

9:00 a.m. - 3:30 p.m., Clayton Hall (North Campus)

This conference provides University of Delaware undergraduates from underrepresented groups with an excellent opportunity to hear from dynamic speakers, meet alumni, network with employers, and find internships as well as full-time and part-time jobs.

For more information visit, <http://www.udel.edu/CSC/employers/mecc.html>

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 7Guallando Latin Festival

6:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m., Trabant Student Center, Food Court

Join HOLA and Chi Upsilon Sigma Latin Sorority for a Latin cultural festival complete with live traditional and contemporary music, food, and performances. Experience the blended influences of African, European, and indigenous cultures.

UNLESS OTHERWISE NOTED, ALL EVENTS ARE FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC.

For more details and calendar updates visit, www.udel.edu/CBC

