The DIVE IN: Diversity Institute is a series of events designed to introduce students to various aspects of diversity, including such topics as racism and micro-aggression, sexual identity and gender, defining culture, and ability status as a component of identity.

ABILITY STATUS WORKSHOP: WE’RE ABLE
Jan. 11 at 6–8 p.m. in Independence West
This workshop invites participants to explore and identify the implications of ableism in our society and learn strategies for reducing barriers.

INTERCULTURAL AWARENESS WORKSHOP: DEFINING CULTURE
Jan. 14, 4–6 p.m. in Redding Lounge
This workshop on intercultural awareness invites participants to explore cultural differences in communication and social norms and connects domestic and international students through games, discussion and reflection.

MLK DAY EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING TRIP TO PHILADELPHIA
Monday, Jan. 18, meeting at 7 a.m.
Ten to twelve students will have the opportunity to embark on an experiential learning trip and explore socioeconomic status via service, cultural immersion, and hands-on experiences.

RACIAL IDENTITY WORKSHOP: RACE, ME AND US
Jan. 21, 4–6 p.m. in Independence East Main Lounge
This workshop invites participants to unpack and reflect on the unconscious biases that permeate our lived experiences and understand how these learned biases inform social interactions.

DIVE INTO ART
Jan. 28, 8 p.m. in Trabant MPR-C
Dive Into Art explores the intersections of identity and diversity through the lens of art, with performances by social justice poet and educator James Dulin.

GENDER & SEXUAL IDENTITY WORKSHOP: BEING AN ALLY—THE SPECTRUM
Jan. 26, 4–6 p.m. in Redding Complex Lounge
This workshop invites participants to gain a greater understanding of the LGBTQQIA community through language and a critical reflection of allyhood. Participants will explore hetero-patriarchy through a historical and contemporary lens and identify tangible steps towards becoming an ally.

DIVE IN CLOSING AND RECOGNITION CEREMONY
Jan. 28, 7 p.m. Doors open at 6:45 p.m. Trabant MPR-C
Open to DIVE IN participants. Students will be recognized at a private ceremony. Dr. Carol Henderson, Vice Provost for Diversity, will deliver a keynote address.
