Diving Coach
University of Delaware

Job description

This part time position (17-20 hours per week of on deck coaching) serves as the Head Diving Coach for men and women. The diving coach is responsible for planning and conducting practice/competition activities for an NCAA Division I Diving program; athlete skill development and performance analysis; identifying & recruiting highly competitive student-athletes; as well as other duties and responsibilities as assigned by the Head Swim Coach. Integrity, leadership, and a thorough knowledge of the sport are required. Must have a strong commitment and ability to motivate, teach, counsel, and recruit academically qualified student-athletes. This is a non- benefited position.

Minimum job requirements

Education Requirements: Bachelor's degree required.

Qualifications and Experience: Experience coaching elite athletes on a nationally competitive level; knowledge of and commitment to NCAA rules and regulations. The candidate must exhibit strong computer, administrative, organizational and interpersonal communications skills. USA Diving Safety Training for Competitive Diving Coaches certification.

To apply, please send resume and cover letter to Hayman@udel.edu.