The School of Education invites applications for a tenure-line faculty position in Educational Leadership and Administration. This is an open rank search.

Qualifications: Excellence in teaching, scholarly research, mentoring of graduate students, and a commitment to professional & public service. The search committee will give preference to candidates with leadership experience at the K-12 level and with teaching and research expertise in one or more of the following areas: K-12 instructional leadership, organizational culture, and leading organizational change and improvement. Teaching responsibilities will be at the graduate level in educational leadership. The School of Education serves approximately 650 undergraduates and over 400 graduate students. The School has 45 tenure track faculty and 20 clinical faculty. The School has a $5 million annual budget which provides a strong resource base for program development and innovation, academic enrichment, scholarly achievement, and professional staff support. The School has been, and continues to be, a leader in a number of national reform initiatives in teacher education. For more information about the School of Education, please visit www.udel.edu/educ.

Application Procedures and Deadline:
Send a cover letter (statement of interest), curriculum vitae, supporting materials, and the names and contact information for five references to Professor Frank B. Murray, Chair, Search Committee, 101 Willard Hall, School of Education, University of Delaware, Newark, DE 19716. Inquiries only may be directed to fmurray@udel.edu. The curriculum vitae and all application materials shall be shared with departmental faculty. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. Appointment begins September 2008.

The UNIVERSITY OF DELAWARE is an Equal Opportunity Employer which encourages applications from Minority Group Members and Women.