

Curriculum Unit
Title

Using Origin Stories to Create our Own Narratives

Author

Michelle Wiedenmann

KEY LEARNING, ENDURING UNDERSTANDING, ETC.

With this unit, the Enduring Understandings are that students will understand that: What myths and origin stories, these stories roles in shaping people's identity, and our past experiences influence our identity today

ESSENTIAL QUESTION(S) for the UNIT

What are myths and origin stories? What is identity? How does my past and family influence how I feel about myself and shape my identity? Can I write an origin narrative about my developing identity?

CONCEPT A

Defining Origin Stories

CONCEPT B

Use of Objects, Place, and Memories in Origin Stories

CONCEPT C

Creating Origin Stories

ESSENTIAL QUESTIONS A

What are myths and origin stories? What is identity?

ESSENTIAL QUESTIONS B

How does my past and family influence how I feel about myself and shape my identity?

ESSENTIAL QUESTIONS C

Can I write an origin narrative about my developing identity?

VOCABULARY A

Origin Stories
Identity

VOCABULARY A

VOCABULARY A

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION/MATERIAL/TEXT/FILM/RESOURCES

Google Docs, Google Slides, Google Drawing

www.flipgrid.com

www.voicethread.com

Documentary: clip from "We Will Rise: Wounded Knee"