What is Academic Transitions?

Academic Transitions (AT) is UD's pathway program for conditionally-admitted undergraduate students. Improve your academic English before starting full-time US university studies. With small class sizes, and support designed for non-native speakers, AT is a great way to begin your journey as a Blue Hen! Students can study all majors via AT.

Features of AT

Courses related to the student's major

AT students follow a special track of study with courses and credits that count toward their bachelor's degree. You can earn up to 28 credits while studying at the ELI—almost the equivalent of the first year of university—which helps you finish in 4 years!

Classes for non-native English speakers

University courses in AT have been designed for students whose first language is not English. This helps students to better understand the course content.

Online option

Students can begin their AT experience taking small, online classes. Classes are mostly live, with students and instructors interacting “face-to-face,” virtually. Breakout rooms provide space for small group work.

Academic skill development

AT students develop study skills, build academic vocabulary, and learn about the expectations of American professors. Most AT students (90%) matriculate after AT2, and earn a higher GPA than international students who did not complete AT.

Resources for student success

Whether studying online or on campus, AT students have many resources to help them be successful: University student and faculty mentors, academic advisors, private tutoring and more.

Excellent value

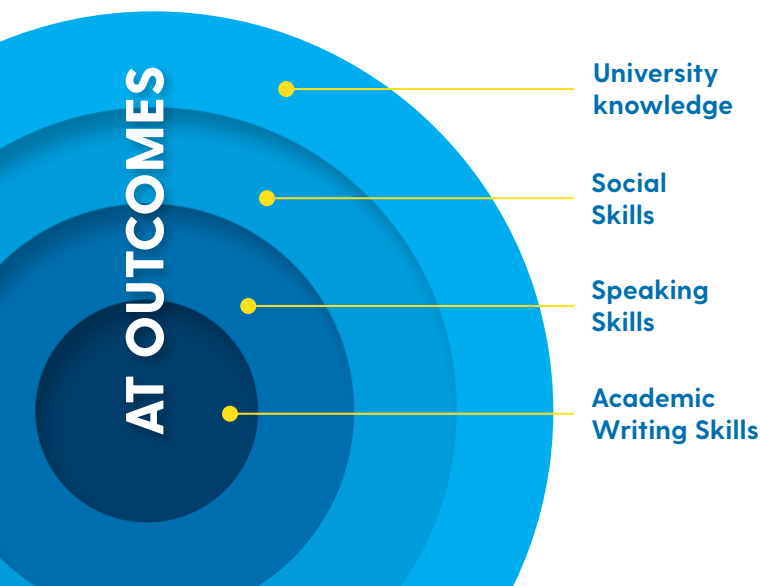

AT students pay a similar price to what other international students pay for one year of full-time university study; however, AT students receive added value in the support that was specially designed for non-native English speakers.

Genuine university experience

The full college experience happens outside of the classroom. AT students join student clubs, participate in campus life, and share their culture with others! Virtual student life events are held several times a week, allowing online students to join in the fun!

Convenient start dates

The AT calendar uses 4-month semesters. There are 3 start dates for AT each year.

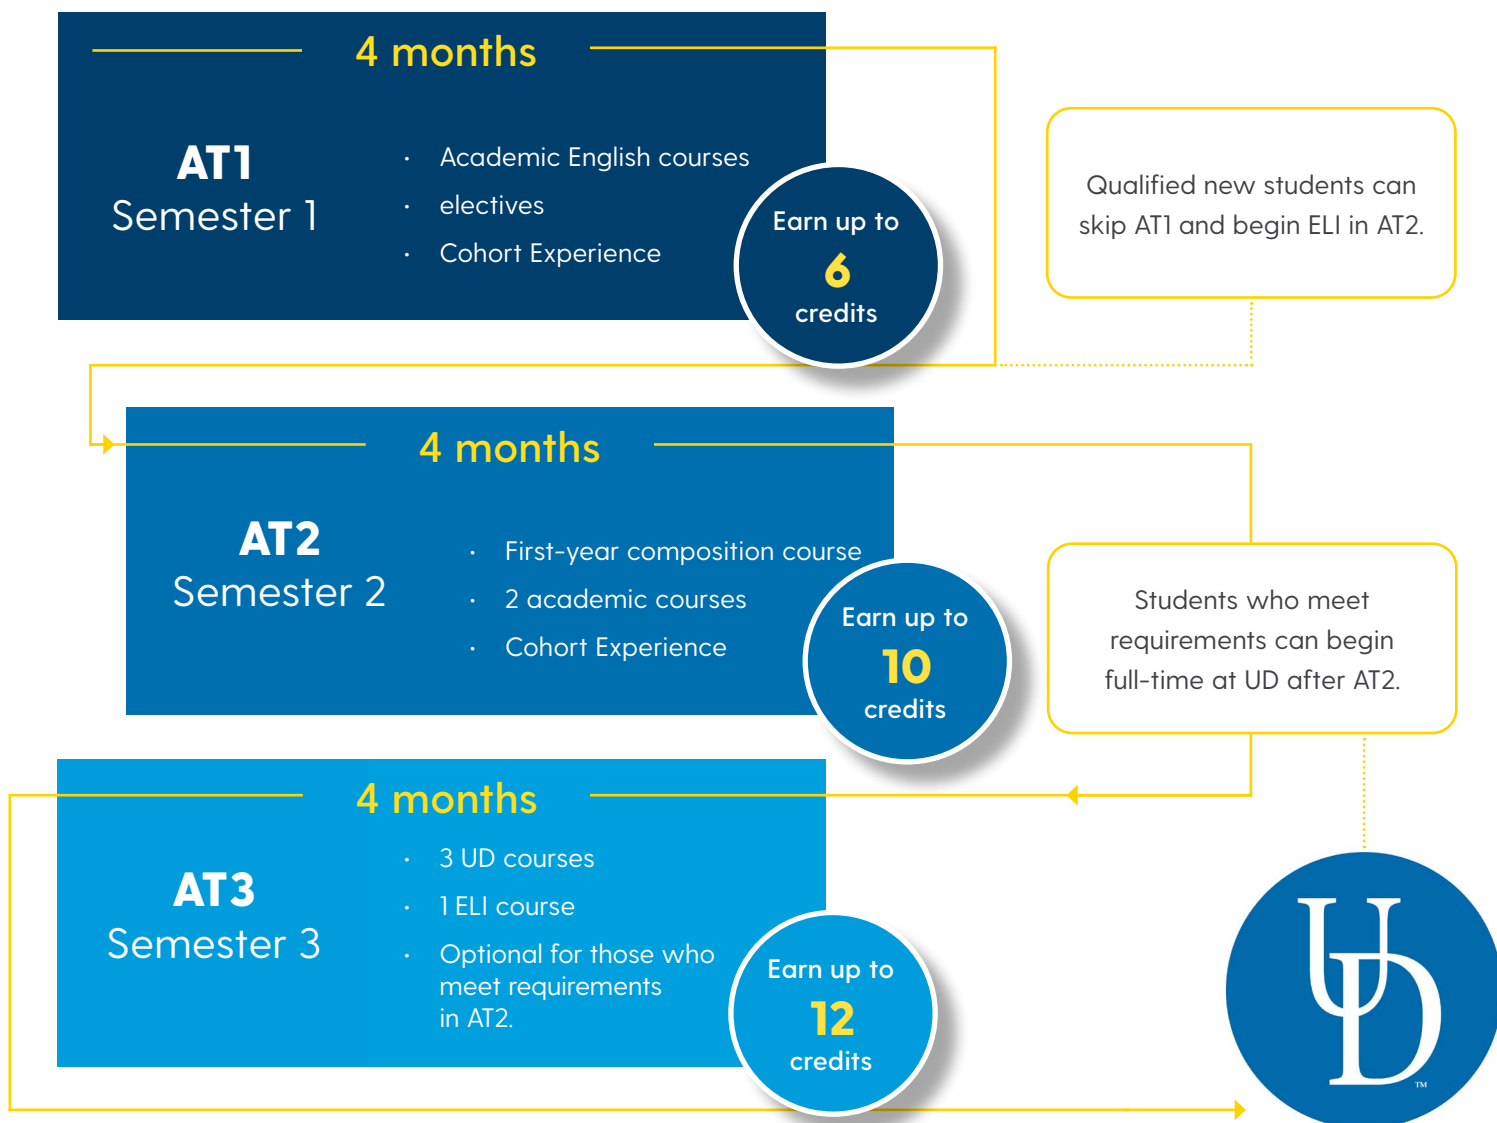

How does AT work?

AT was specially designed with two important purposes in mind:

1. To give international students a complete university preparation experience that touches all aspects of their development, including their English skills, social and cultural skills, academic skills and more as they earn up to a year of university credits; and
2. To help these students apply what they have learned by using those skills in their university classes while also enjoying the support of the ELI.

To achieve these important objectives, the ELI has developed a curriculum that prepares students for the academic rigor that is expected at a top-ranked U.S. university, while also helping students to truly engage in campus life.

Sample Schedule

	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY
MORNING (Newark time)
6:15–8 a.m.					Instructor Meetings Walk-In Tutoring Homework
	Art History Discussion	Business Discussion	Art History Discussion

10:25 a.m. – 12:10 p.m.
EVENING (Newark Time)
8–9:40 p.m.	English		English	English

Housing Options

Housing not only helps you practice your English-language skills outside of the classroom, but it is also an amazing cultural experience!

AT students on the Newark campus are required to live with Americans in one of the following housing options:

- Residence halls (i.e., dormitories) on campus
- Homestay: living with American hosts
- ELI Global Community at The Waverly

The housing type that is available to you depends on your level in the program and the time of year when you start AT.

Visit our website at www.udel.edu/eli/at/housing to learn more about housing.

AT Price

Students are expected to complete AT in 8 months. However, if you do not meet all program requirements after AT2, you will be required to enroll in AT3. In addition, you can choose to take AT3—even if you have already met requirements in AT2—because it is such a great deal!

Students have two options: study online or study on UD's main campus in Newark.

Pre-AT prices are for each 2-month session attended prior to beginning AT1. Pre-AT is only necessary for students who do not place directly into AT upon arrival at ELI.

Prices listed for housing and food are estimates. They depend on your specific housing assignment.

A $300 tuition deposit is required and will be subtracted from your first tuition bill.

Initial placement & Program duration

Program Duration

How long will it take to complete the ELI? The amount of time you spend at the ELI depends on your English level when you arrive and the effort you give to the program and all of its activities.

Initial Placement

We strongly recommend that all students submit a recent, official TOEFL or IELTS, National Gaokao or South Korean CSAT score to us. Although these scores are not required for you to be conditionally admitted to UD, giving these scores to the ELI will help you to know your placement level before you come to Delaware.

If you submit an exam score before coming to the ELI, you will be placed according to this chart:

TOEFL	IELTS	Duolingo	China Gaokao English	South Korea CSAT	Placement	Duration
72-78	6.0	DET 95-109	105-124	2	AT second semester (AT2)	4 months
65-71	5.5				AT first semester (AT1)	Option 1: 8 months (earn up to 16 credits) Option 2: 12 months (earn up to 28 credits)
0-64	0-5.0	94 and below	104 and below	3	Pre-AT*	Add 2 months per level

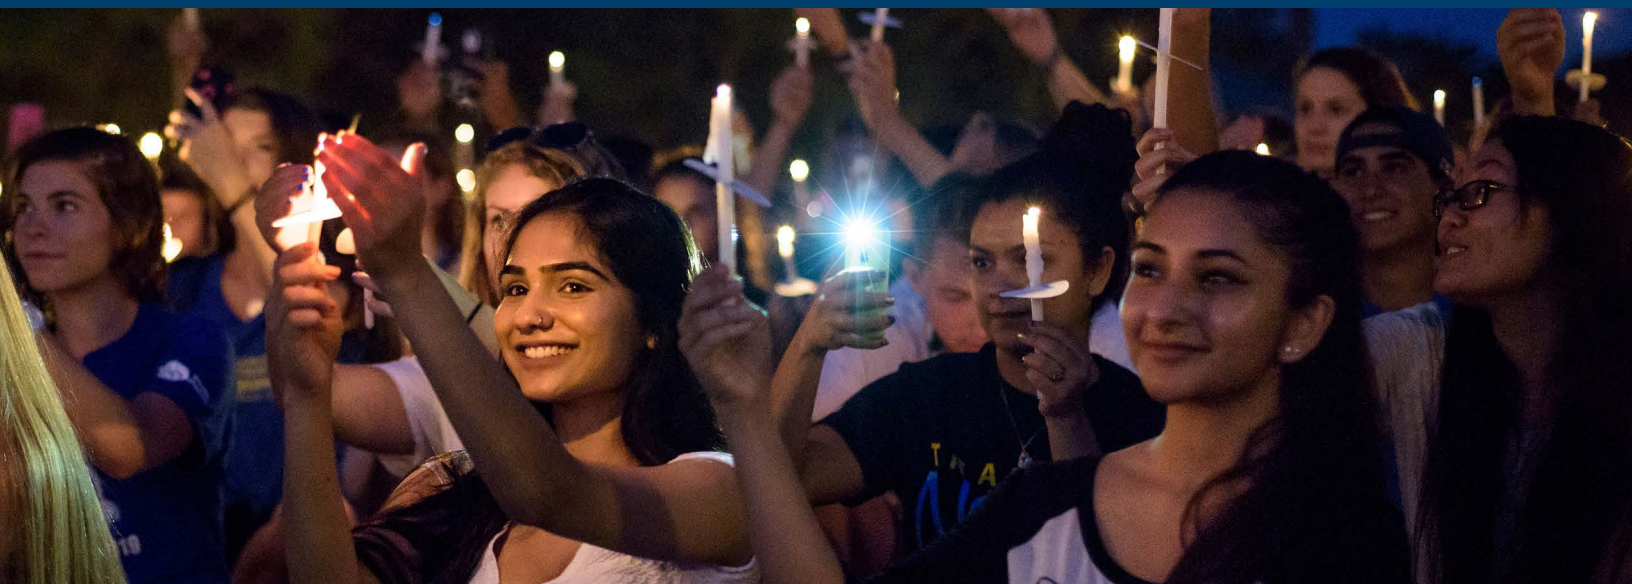

You will still be required to take the ELI entrance assessment when you arrive in Delaware. For students submitting Gaokao, South Korea CSAT, or Duolingo scores, the entrance assessment will determine your level placement within AT. For students submitting TOEFL or IELTS scores, the entrance assessment will not change your placement; we use this test to determine whether you may need extra support with specific English skills.

If you do not submit qualified scores, you will be placed according to the entrance assessment results.

For more information, see sites.udel.edu/eli/programs/at/placement.

Only official TOEFL, IELTS, Gaokao, South Korea CSAT, or Duolingo scores will be accepted.

Scores cannot be older than 12 months. You may not change your placement or admissions status by submitting scores after the beginning of your program.

DO YOU WANT TO BEGIN ELI ON A DIFFERENT DATE?

No problem! At the ELI, we run programs that happen on a two-month calendar.

Some students find it helpful to enroll in our Accelerated University English Program (AUEP) for at least 2 months before beginning AT. In AUEP, you can practice your English and adjust to the culture at UD.

AUEP courses begin 6 times per year.

See www.udel.edu/eli/calendar for specific dates.

Admissions

To participate in AT, you must be academically qualified for admission into the University of Delaware. You must meet all of the same academic requirements as any other applicant to UD.
