

RN to MSN

Non Nursing 59 transferable credits

Science Prerequisites (23 cr)

Biology
Microbiology
Anatomy and Physiology
Chemistry
Nutrition

Non-Nursing Prerequisites (36 cr)

English 110
Second English Composition
Psychology
Life Span Development
Statistics 200
*UD Breadth Requirements
*Free Electives

* Amount of credits /courses needed will depend on individual transcript evaluation results

* Basic nursing knowledge as validated by successful completion of registered licensure exam
(30 credits will be awarded for the United States Nursing License)

Nursing Courses

- MSN CNS Adult /Gerontology Health
- MSN CNS Pediatrics
- MSN Health Services Administration
- MSN NP Family Health
- MSN NP Adult / Gerontology Health

- ✓ CNS and HSAD tracks are online course delivery whereas NP tracks utilize online and campus courses
- ✓ Clinical Hours are done local to the student and vary in total number per program of study
- ✓ Application process is competitive and seats in programs are limited
- ✓ 3.0 cumulative GPA in all previous coursework required for admission
- ✓ Students complete between 12 and 16 credits of Undergraduate Nursing coursework and between 6-9 credits of Graduate Nursing (depending of program of study) and interview before being approved to progress into your graduate program

Total credits: 134-149 (total credits vary per track of study)

Contact us for more details on our free unofficial transcript evaluation

Anne DeCaire BSN, RN Recruitment Officer aderb@udel.edu or 302-831-0442

www.udel.edu/nursing