General Information

Mission and Vision

The Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at the University of Delaware in Dover offers opportunities for intellectual development, cultural stimulation, personal growth and social interaction for people age 50+ in an educational cooperative.

Members volunteer their wealth of talent and experience in planning and implementing college-level educational experiences to form an educational cooperative. The members are the instructors and students, and through a committee structure guide the operating policies, develop curriculum and help with daily operations. No educational prerequisites are needed and there are no grades or exams—just learning for the fun of it.

Schedule

Classes are conducted in the Modern Maturity Center in Dover on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays during the day for a 10-week semester. The Fall 2012 semester begins September 11, 2012 and ends November 15, 2012. Each class meets once a week for approximately one hour and 15 minutes. A full calendar is located on the inside of the back cover.

Membership

Members are interested in and support the mission. Members must be either at least 50 years old within four months after the beginning of the term in which they register, or the spouse of a member of that age.

Members complete a registration form and pay the membership fee for the full year or the current semester.

Instructor-only members complete a registration form and have been accepted to teach in the current semester, but do not pay the membership fee and do not participate in the courses or activities of the program.

Full year memberships begin with fall registration and expire on September 1 of the following year. Full year memberships include fall and spring semesters and are only available to purchase during the fall semester.

Single semester memberships begin upon registration for the fall or spring semester and expire on the first day of the subsequent semester.

Membership Fees

Full year membership for the 2012-2013 academic year is $235 and is available only in the fall. Single semester membership is $140 per semester. Membership may be paid for by check. Credit card payment is not available. Need-based partial scholarships are available. For scholarship information, contact the program coordinator at 302-734-1200, ext. 168 to schedule an appointment. The program's income depends almost entirely on registration fees, which are applied against operating expenses, including rent for the Modern Maturity Center's classrooms and offices and the cost of printing and postage. Osher Lifelong Learning in Dover is expected to generate sufficient membership revenue to cover operating costs.

Course Registration

Each student may choose three classes in order of priority. Students may be given an opportunity to take more than three classes based on availability. Class size will vary based on room capacity and instructor-requested limits to class size.

Priority Registration

During priority registration, students are placed in their requested courses by lottery after August 3, the cut-off date. Members will be mailed their class assignments by August 22.

In-person registration is Tuesday, July 31 and Wednesday, August 1, 9 a.m.–1 p.m. In-person registration is held at the Modern Maturity Center.

Mailed forms for priority registration must be received by Friday, August 3.

Telephone registration is not available.

Checks should be made payable to the University of Delaware.

Registration

The second chance to register in person for classes with open seats is available Tuesday and Wednesday, September 4–5, from 9 a.m.–1 p.m. at the Modern Maturity Center. During the second registration period, students are placed in classes on a first-come, first-served basis.

Registration by mail is accepted until Thursday, September 6. Walk-in registrations also are welcome the first two weeks of the semester.

Other Programs

Members can enjoy other program benefits such as the lunchtime speaker series.

Refunds

Membership refunds will be given until the end of the second week of the semester. All requests must be made in writing and submitted to the office. Refunds will be processed no sooner than September 25. A $15 processing fee will be deducted from all refunds.

Inclement Weather

Classes are canceled whenever Modern Maturity Center activities are canceled due to inclement weather. Please visit www.lifelonglearning.udel.edu/dover for weather updates or cancellations, or call the Modern Maturity Center at 302-734-1200.

Books and Supplies

Most courses do not require purchased books or supplies. Course descriptions list textbooks and other supplies if suggested for the course. The cost of these materials is the responsibility of the student.

Location and Parking

Classes are held at the Modern Maturity Center at 1121 Forrest Avenue (Route 8) in Dover. The Modern Maturity Center has accessible, abundant and free parking. Handicapped parking is readily available in the main parking lot.

Lunch

Discussion and friendship are important elements of the lifelong learning community. Members are encouraged to continue their discussions and become better acquainted during our noon lunch period. Lunch is available in the Modern Maturity Center cafeteria.

Volunteer Opportunities

As an educational cooperative, the success of the program depends on engaged and enthusiastic volunteers. Members are encouraged to offer new course ideas, serve as instructors and serve on committees in support of the program. Active participation in the lifelong learning program is an excellent way to develop new friendships and be part of an exciting new learning community.

To volunteer, contact the Dover program coordinator at 302-734-1200, Modern Maturity Center, 1121 Forrest Avenue, Dover, 19904 or email LLL-dover@udel.edu.

THAT REMINDS ME OF A STORY: ABRAHAM LINCOLN AS A STORYTELLER AND HUMORIST

Course ID: HX155

Tuesday, 9 a.m.–10:15 a.m.

Instructor: Larry Koch

With the exception of the divinity, more has been written about Abraham Lincoln than anybody else who has walked this planet. These include, but are not limited to, books about his civilian and military leadership, religious leanings, ethics, family and politics. Interestingly, except for collections of anecdotes, very little has been written about his storytelling and humor, and none by another storyteller! Storytelling and humor were very important to Lincoln. From the many pranks he pulled, from his love of wordplay as a lawyer and politician, as a vehicle for addressing his deep moments of depressions, humor was an essential part of his being. When Congressman Ashley criticized him for telling jokes at a time when men were dying on the battlefield, Lincoln replied, “If I could not tell jokes I would die.” The influences on his humor, examples of his jokes and his uses of story to advance his agenda will all be explored in this class, which will include student participation and involvement.

WAR STORIES: TALES FROM CONFLICTS OVER TIME

Course ID: HX160

Wednesday, 1 p.m.–2:15 p.m.

Instructor: Dave Skocik

This course will present 10 guest speakers, who will each represent a member of the military, through re-enactment or live presentation, who served during war time. Topics will range from the American Revolution through Afghanistan. The speaker will describe what life was like during the conflict, its historical significance, the attitude of the American people, homecoming experience, the media’s role in the war, and recollections from their own experience or those of others.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN AND THE CIVIL WAR

Course ID: HX205

Tuesday, 10:30 a.m.–11:45 a.m.

Instructor: Dan Pritchett

The course will start with an overview of Lincoln’s life and career, his rise from relative obscurity to the presidency in 1860, and his “trial by fire” as the 16th president during the greatest crisis, and the bloodiest war, the United States has ever seen. The class will cover the key events of the war, the assassination and the failure of reconstruction under Lincoln’s successors.

HUMANITIES

LIFELONG LEARNING BOOK LOVERS GROUP (FICTION)

Course ID: HU120

Wednesday, 1 p.m.–2:15 p.m.
