Mission and Vision

The Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at the University of Delaware in Dover offers opportunities for intellectual development, cultural stimulation, personal growth and social interaction for people age 50+ in an educational cooperative.

Members volunteer their wealth of talent and experience in planning and implementing high-quality educational experiences to form an educational cooperative. The members are the instructors and students, and through a volunteer structure, guide the operating policies, develop curriculum and help with daily operations. No educational prerequisites are needed, and there are no grades or exams—just learning for the fun of it.

General Information

Membership

Membership is open to men and women at least 50 years old and to members' spouses or partners at any age. Whether your formal education ended early in life or includes advanced degrees, we welcome you. An interest in learning is all that is required.

Members complete a registration form and pay the membership fee for the full year or the current term. Single-term memberships expire on the first day of the subsequent term, while full-year memberships expire on September 1 each year.

Fees

Single-semester membership: $160

Full-year membership: $275

Instructor discount: $20 for each semester taught

With your membership, you may request to take as many courses as you like. Course requests will be granted based on members' priorities (see p. 17 for more information). The program depends almost entirely on membership fees, which are applied against operating expenses, including rent for classroom space, office and classroom supplies, staff salaries, and the cost of catalog printing and postage.

Financial Assistance

Need-based partial scholarships are available. For scholarship information or an application, contact the office at 302-736-7450.

Refunds

Membership fees will be refunded prior to the end of the second week of the semester. Refund requests must be submitted in writing to the office. A $15 processing charge will be deducted from all refund requests received after the first day of classes.

Trip and activity refund requests will only be accepted prior to the event and must be submitted in writing to the office. Acceptance of refund requests will be granted based on the required minimum number of participants needed to cover the costs of the event. Once the office has made final payments for trips and activities there will be no refunds.

Refunds may take up to six weeks to process. Questions should be directed to the office.

Volunteer Opportunities

As an educational cooperative, the success of the program depends on engaged and enthusiastic volunteers. Members are encouraged to offer new course ideas, serve as instructors and serve on teams in support of the program. Active participation in the lifelong learning program is an excellent way to develop new friendships and be part of an exciting and dynamic learning community.

To volunteer, please complete the "Volunteer Opportunities" section on the registration form, contact the office at 302-736-7450 or email LLL-dover@udel.edu.

About the UD Lifelong Learning Center

The University of Delaware Division of Professional and Continuing Studies opened the UD Lifelong Learning Center in the summer of 2016 at the College Business Park in Dover. Part of the Division's efforts to better serve residents of Kent County, this facility will enable the continued growth of Dover's Osher Lifelong Learning Institute. In addition, the Division will offer selected professional development courses, college test prep courses and educational opportunities to residents of all ages.

★ New!

AA114 WATERCOLOR 101

Wednesdays, 10:30 a.m.–11:45 a.m.
Dates: 10 Sessions, February 1–April 5
Instructor: Cade Gibson

This is a class for beginners. The first class covers materials and their uses. From there we will move on to theory and techniques. No drawing experience is necessary. Each class begins with a lecture/demonstration. The second half of the class will be hands-on. Students will leave this class with an understanding and enjoyment of the watercolor process. Supply list will be given at first class.

AA115 OIL PAINTING

Tuesdays, 9 a.m.–11:45 a.m.
Dates: 10 Sessions, January 31–April 4
Instructor: Jan Miller

Individual and group instruction for students with some painting background, this course is designed for anyone who has already begun their study of painting and would like to continue the oil painting experience. We will use different surfaces, as well as learn techniques in applying paint to them. Subjects will be chosen by each student to best tap into their personal inspirations. Critiques by the instructor and other students will offer a pleasant painting atmosphere.

AA116 PLAY WITH PASTELS!

Thursdays, 9 a.m.–11:45 a.m.
Dates: 10 Sessions, February 2–April 6
Instructor: Jan Miller

Make drawings come to life using pastels. Students will study style and techniques to apply and manipulate color in a way similar to painting. They will be able to put to use their drawing and color skills.

★ New!

AA127 FUNDAMENTALS OF PHOTOGRAPHY II

Thursdays, 1 p.m.–2:15 p.m.
Dates: 10 Sessions, February 2–April 6
Instructor: Roger Hazzard

In Fundamentals II we will review composition (seeing well) which we were introduced to in Fundamentals I. We will then go to work. We will continue to use the DVD lecture series that features Joel Sartore (a National Geographic contributing photographer). Our work will include landscapes, wildlife, people and relationships, special occasions and family vacations. We will also have a chance to develop skills in macro photography and understand how to work in low light. Finally we will learn how to tell a story with pictures.

AA130 FUNDAMENTALS OF DRAWING I

Tuesdays, 1 p.m.–3:45 p.m.
Dates: 10 Sessions, January 31–April 4
Instructor: Linda Medunick

There is more to drawing than cartoons. Artists use graphite pencils and various strokes and shading techniques to produce drawings of all kinds—still life, portrait and landscape. This class brings out the artist inside of those who think they can't draw a straight line (we will use rulers). A list of supplies will be distributed. Approximate supply cost will be $30.

AA131 FUNDAMENTALS OF DRAWING PART II

Wednesdays, 1 p.m.–3:45 p.m.

Dates: 10 Sessions, February 1–April 5

Instructor: Linda Medunick

A continuation of the world of drawing, honing the basic skills from previous instruction. Course concentrates on a more advanced study of the human body, land and seascapes and forms. Prerequisite: student should have taken part one or basic drawing.

AA155 INTRODUCTION TO NORTHERN RENAISSANCE ART

Thursdays, 1 p.m.–2:15 p.m.

Dates: 10 Sessions, February 2–April 6

Instructor: Art McLaughlin

This course focuses on the concepts and historical factors that contributed to the development of the transition from the Gothic style to the Renaissance style in northern European painting. Emphasis is on the well-known painters of Germany and the Netherlands. Some artists covered will be Dürer, the Van Eycks, Bosch, Gropius and Pieter Bruegel the Elder. We will briefly discuss Renaissance painting in France and England.

Member Benefits

Spend your day having fun. Make and sustain friendships. Learn about yourself and others.

- Audit one UD credit course in fall and spring semester on a space-available basis without paying tuition. Does not include online/distance learning courses, Associate in Arts program, certificate programs or UD travel/study programs. All relevant fees apply.
- Internet access and a UDel email account via the UD system.

AA157 TECHNICAL EXAMINATION OF ART, FORGERIES AND THEFT

Tuesdays, 2:30 p.m.–3:45 p.m.

Dates: 5 Sessions, January 31–February 28

Instructor: Art McLaughlin

This course presents the various scientific tests—chemical, light source, and microscopic—that are used by experts to date and verify authenticity and authorship, where possible, of paintings and sculpture. Examples of art forgeries and other art crimes will be presented via PowerPoint and lectures.

AA166 OPEN STUDIO—MULTIMEDIA

Wednesdays, 9 a.m.–10:15 a.m.

Dates: 10 Sessions, February 1–April 5

Instructor: Linda Medunick

This course is designed for one-on-one study and open for students to work on school projects.

COMPUTER SCIENCE

CS110 21ST CENTURY SECURITY

Tuesdays, 2:30 p.m.–3:45 p.m.

Dates: 5 Sessions, January 31–February 28

Instructor: Susan McLaughlin

We live in a remarkable world, propelled forward by rapid advances in technology. The thought of “keeping up” can often be overwhelming. This five-week course is designed to present basic concepts of cyber security awareness by showing numerous short videos. The list of topics includes safe browsing habits, identity theft, consumer fraud, malware, social engineering, password cracking, cyber-terrorism, the “internet of things” and information privacy and the Fourth Amendment. The structure of this course may be modified to adjust to the interests of the class.

Gifts

While we calculate membership fees to cover our operating costs, we always have a need for additional and upgraded audiovisual equipment, computers and classroom teaching aids. Many of those items are paid from the Gift Fund. We are happy to receive your donation to the Gift Fund for a specific use, or preferably, unrestricted so your Council can focus them on our greatest needs. You can include a gift with your registration.

HISTORY

HX156 BOOK CLUB: ELEANOR ROOSEVELT— A FIRST LADY ACTIVIST

Thursdays, 9 a.m.–10:15 a.m.
Dates: 5 Sessions, February 2–March 2
Instructor: Elizabeth Jelich

Mrs. Roosevelt is known today as a politician, diplomat, activist and humanitarian. Each class period the attendees will complete a reading assignment. In class they will then discuss various questions, and learn about Eleanor's life from childhood through her years as First Lady. Attendees will read and learn through group discussion about one of America's most remarkable women of the twentieth century. Attendees will participate in a book club reading The Autobiography of Eleanor Roosevelt. Publisher: Harper Perennial; reprint edition; October 21, 2014; 480 pages, ISBN-10: 0062355910.

HX159 HISTORY OF AVIATION—PART III

Tuesdays, 9 a.m.–10:15 a.m.
Dates: 5 Sessions, January 31–February 28
Instructor: Ray Hain

This course extends over several semesters. The course will introduce the early history of aviation. It will then introduce the people, places and ideas that brought the airplane to what it is today. There are many colorful characters who gave us some part of this history from inventing the airplane to actually flying them. The course will consider the many military and civilian uses to which airplanes have been put. It will end with the space age.

HX163 THE EVE OF DESTRUCTION— A HISTORY OF THE COLD WAR—PART II

Tuesdays, 9 a.m.–10:15 a.m.
Dates: 10 Sessions, January 31–April 4
Instructor: Kevin McGrath

This multi-semester course explores key events of the Cold War. Utilizing a video series of both CNN and BBC that was shown in 1998, we will explore key events during the Cold War such as the Berlin Wall, Cuban Missile Crisis, Vietnam and the 60s. You need not have attended Part I of this program to register for this class.

HX168 CREATIVE AND PERFORMING ARTS IN THE BLACK COMMUNITY

Wednesdays, 9 a.m.–10:15 a.m.
Dates: 10 Sessions, February 1–April 5
Instructor: Don Blakey

This class explores the arts as they are expressed in the Black community in the areas of theatre, music, quilting, painting, carving and writing. Each week will bring to the students a unique perspective of the Black community as it continues to produce and make contributions to the larger community that in many ways go unnoticed.

★ New!

HX170 THE WAR FOR INDEPENDENCE

Wednesdays, 1 p.m.–2:15 p.m.
Dates: 5 Sessions, March 8–April 5
Instructor: Douglass Miller

As a continuation of the subject matter discussed in "Shot Heard 'Round the World," we will continue to place emphasis on the persons of interest pertaining to our war for independence. Military leaders and their part in the battles to drive out the British military will play a large part in these discussions.

HX195 THE ELOQUENT PRESIDENCY OF JOHN F. KENNEDY

Wednesdays, 10:30 a.m.–11:45 a.m.
Dates: 10 Sessions, February 1–April 5
Instructor: Dan Pritchett

This course examines the 1,037-day presidency of John Fitzgerald Kennedy by looking at both his words and deeds. His remarkable eloquence will be noted by listening to (and reading) some of his greatest speeches. His increasing mastery of the job of chief executive will focus on his handling of two tense confrontations: the Cuban Missile Crisis of 1962 and the showdown with Governor George Wallace at the University of Alabama in 1963.

HX217 SELECTED TOPICS IN DELAWARE HISTORY

Tuesdays, 10:30 a.m.–11:45 a.m.

Dates: 5 Sessions, January 31–February 28

Instructor: Terry Bryan

Dr. Bryan describes aspects of Delaware history related to his long-time research and collecting interests. Slides and show-and-tell material will illustrate the talks. The first session will discuss the history of the boundaries of Delaware.

HX240 LEWIS & CLARK—VOYAGE OF DISCOVERY

Thursdays, 1 p.m.–2:15 p.m.

Dates: 5 Sessions, February 2–March 2

Instructor: Bill Jones

Using lecture, PowerPoint and the Ken Burns' film "Lewis and Clark: The Journey of the Corps of Discovery," we will look in depth at the epic journey that was the Lewis and Clark expedition. We will discuss the hardships, the incredible land that was explored, and what happened to these men afterwards. We will also look in depth at Sacagawea, the incredible teenager without whom the voyage of discovery would have failed.

HX241 POMPEII—A TIME CAPSULE OF ROMAN LIFE

Thursdays, 10:30 a.m.–11:45 a.m.

Dates: 10 Sessions, February 2–April 6

Instructor: Bill Jones

The eruption of Vesuvius in 79 CE buried the Roman city of Pompeii under yards and yards of volcanic ash, creating a time capsule of Roman architecture, art and daily life. With the assistance of Professor Steven L. Tuck of Miami University and the Great Courses, we will explore the history of Pompeii from the second century BCE to its death in 79 CE. We will look at early settlement of the area, daily life at the height of the Roman Empire, the eruption and the death of the city and the current excavations and preservation efforts.

★ New!

HX260 OSTFRONT—WWII ON THE EASTERN FRONT

Thursdays, 10:30 a.m.–11:45 a.m.

Dates: 10 Sessions, February 2–April 6

Instructor: Mike Apgar

The most titanic struggle in WWII was the war between Germany (and its allies) and the Soviet Union. It involved the biggest armies, largest battles and highest casualties (both military and civilian). This course will cover the origin, process and end of that epic contest with films, maps and pictures.

★ New!

HX270 ANTIETAM, THE REST OF THE STORY

Tuesdays, 2:30 p.m.–3:45 p.m.

Dates: 5 Sessions, March 7–April 4

Instructor: Patrick Weaver

This course explores the battle of Antietam and its impact on the soldiers, citizens of Washington County, Maryland and the country.

Books and supplies

Most courses do not require purchased books or supplies. Course descriptions list textbooks and other supplies if suggested for the course. The cost of these materials is the responsibility of the student.

HUMANITIES

HU102 FAIRY TALES, FABLES AND MORE

Wednesdays, 2:30 p.m.–3:45 p.m.
Dates: 10 Sessions, February 1–April 5
Instructor: Ann Kemmerle

This is a fun course about fairy tales and fables and some of the themes that they represent. These tales provide important learning for children and adults of any age. We will explore the positive effects that these stories can have on all. Of course, there are some dark sides as well. Through PowerPoint, videos, books and discussion, new knowledge can be learned. Come join us in this “magical world.”

HU121 INTERESTING ISSUES IN CONSTITUTIONAL LAW

Tuesdays, 9 a.m.–10:15 a.m.
Dates: 5 Sessions, March 7–April 4
Instructor: Mary Boyd

A review and discussion of the philosophy and history behind the U.S. Constitution, including interpretations by the Supreme Court and amendments. This course takes a macro/micro approach to our founding documents and includes various interpretations by authors and commentators. Each course highlights a different aspect of constitutional thinking and is unique in itself. The goal is to widen one’s thinking relative to facts and context as participants in representative government.

HU200 THE BIBLE AS LITERATURE II—FROM JUDAISM TO JESUS

Thursdays, 9 a.m.–10:15 a.m.
Dates: 10 Sessions, February 2–April 6
Instructor: Bob Heifetz

We continue our exploration of the Hebrew Bible/Old Testament as a repository of exceptional literary forms. We will move on to the New Testament. We will discuss the connection between the two texts. Finally, we will seek out the varied literary styles of the New Testament. Participation in Part I is not required. What is required is your Bible, curiosity and an open mind!

HU218 THE WILL OF THE PEOPLE

Wednesdays, 9 a.m.–10:15 a.m.
Dates: 10 Sessions, February 1–April 5
Instructor: Kevin McGrath

This “Great Books” program brings together 14 monumental texts, including the Declaration of Independence, the Federalist Papers, the Gettysburg Address, Letter from a Birmingham Jail and additional powerhouse documents. We will read and discuss the meaning and continuing importance of these documents. The required text for this program is available at the Great Books Foundation—store.greatbooks.org. The cost is $12.95. To allow for adequate discussion time, this class is limited to 15 students.

HU221 NEW YORK CITY—“IT’S A HELLUVA TOWN” PART II

Thursdays, 10:30 a.m.–11:45 a.m.
Dates: 10 Sessions, February 2–April 6
Instructor: Bob Heifetz

The class continues its journey into this fascinating city. In this second program we will continue to enjoy the music, art, history, and literature of the Big Apple. We will read and discuss more short stories and poetry about New York from Wonderful Town: New York Stories from the New Yorker. There will be a few extras that will add to the journey. So, bring your questions, memories, and a taste for literature, music, and art.

★ New!

HU237 MISHMASH: “HYBRID”—BEFORE WE PASS AWAY

Tuesdays, 10:30 a.m.–11:45 a.m.
Dates: 5 Sessions, March 7–April 4
Instructors: James and Kay Greene

The Mishmash series returns with an entirely new question: what to think about machines that think (the Edge annual question for 2015)? While this is a philosophy course, our goal is to have fun by observing the interplay of life and ideas using the arts, especially film. First, we will watch an episode of Northern Exposure, a deeply philosophical and funny TV series, on what it means to be human. Second, we will examine the binary nature of artificial intelligence by watching the feature film Ex Machina by Alex Garland. Finally, we will discuss several points on the future of Homo sapiens from What to Think About Machines That Think? edited by John Brockman, Beginning of Infinity by David Deutsch and Kluge by Gary Marcus.

HU240 THE CATHEDRAL

Thursdays, 9 a.m.–10:15 a.m.

Dates: 10 Sessions, February 2–April 6

Instructor: Bill Jones

Europe is the cradle of Gothic architecture. With the assistance of The Great Courses' "The Cathedral," we will explore the art and architecture of the great cathedrals of France and the British Isles. We will study the development of Gothic architecture, the sculpture, the great open spaces, and stained-glass windows that define these magnificent Gothic structures.

★ New!

HU244 DR. SEUSS: AN AMERICAN ICON

Thursdays, 1 p.m.– 2:15 p.m.

Dates: 10 sessions, February 2–April 6

Instructor: Sue Letavish

Dr. Seuss's life as well as his books have much to tell us. This class is both fun and interesting as the participants are presented with information about Dr. Seuss that is not widely known.

Time will also be spent listening to his unique books. Come prepared to enjoy Dr. Seuss with your adult mind and with your childhood joy!

★ New!

HU250 SHROUD OF TURIN

Tuesdays, 9 a.m.–10:15 a.m.

Dates: 5 Sessions, March 7–April 4

Instructor: Ray Hain

This is a time to discuss what the shroud is and some understanding of its history, the science used to determine the age and image of the shroud and provide some rational means of deciding just what to believe about the shroud's authenticity.

HU251 A POETIC LOOK AT SHAKESPEARE'S PLAYS

Tuesdays, 10:30 a.m.–11:45 a.m.

Dates: 5 sessions, January 31–February 28

Instructor: Russ Endo

Was Shakespeare a playwright or poet? Poet, Playwright, Playwright, Poet? If, as Harold Bloom thinks, Shakespeare "invented the human," how, exactly, did Shakespeare do this? What was Shakespeare's motivation (aside from money!)? What is it about his plays that continue to entice and intrigue? We will delve closely into excerpts of text, glean hints, and we will speculate, and perhaps gain a deeper appreciation of Shakespeare's power (as playwright, poet; poet, playwright; which comes first?).

LANGUAGE

LA100 FRENCH FOR TRAVELERS

Tuesdays, 9 a.m.–10:15 a.m.

Dates: 5 Sessions, March 7–April 4

Instructor: Alice Cataldi

Participants in this course will acquire the basic communicative skills needed to interact with French-speakers from Canada to Martinique as well as France. Extensive practice will be provided to master the French sound system. No textbook is required. No prior knowledge of the language is required.

★ New!

LA220 SOUTH OF FRANCE

Tuesdays, 10:30 a.m.–11:45 a.m.

Dates: 10 Sessions, January 31–April 4

Instructor: Alice Cataldi

Participants in this course will acquire the language for discussing films. They will discover the special beauty of Southern France through the lens of Marcel Pagnol. They will view two films that celebrate the unique characteristics of the Provence region. The first five weeks will be led by the participants: Phyllis Handler, Mary Walsh, Nancy Frankl, Erv Schleiffer, and Terri DuPuis.

LS113 ISSUES & CHALLENGES OF GRANDPARENTING

Tuesdays, 1 p.m.–2:15 p.m.
Dates: 5 Sessions, January 31–February 28
Instructor: Jeff Cohen

This discussion group explores the issues and challenges facing today's grandparents. These include how to deal with various family dynamics, how to deal with step-grandchildren, relating to older grandchildren and getting along with daughter-in-law and son-in-law. This course is an open exchange of experiences, thoughts and ideas that greatly depend on student participation. The goal of this course is to enable each grandparent to come to terms with their issues and challenges and to find solutions for them.

LS114 ON BEING A "SPECIAL" GRANDPARENT

Wednesdays, 9 a.m.–10:15 a.m.
Dates: 5 Sessions, February 1–March 1
Instructor: Jeff Cohen

This course is designed for all grandparents and grandparents-to-be. A grandparent is more than just a family title. It is a unique treasured role with unique responsibilities. Together, the class will explore and discover what it means to be a special grandparent and identify its unique role, responsibilities and qualities. The course will involve interactive class discussion supported by written questionnaires and a do-it-yourself special project. At the completion of the course each student will be empowered to seek to be a "special" grandparent.

SS145 FORGET YOUR CALCULATOR

Wednesdays, 1 p.m.–2:15 p.m.
Dates: 5 Sessions, February 1–March 1
Instructor: Douglass Miller

Do you hate math? Did you experience problems with math classes in school? Can you make change without a calculator? How easily can you calculate a wait person's tip upon receipt of the check? Can you mentally convert degrees fahrenheit to degrees centigrade? If these questions apply to you, I want YOU in this class. Leave your calculators at home! I want all math haters. This course will be based on "The Great Courses—The Secrets of Mental Math," and the instructor's personal arithmetic experience.

SS155 HOW YOUR BODY WORKS AND HOW IT AGES

Tuesdays, 1 p.m.–2:15 p.m.
Dates: 10 Sessions, January 31–April 4
Instructor: Art McLaughlin

This course presents the anatomy and physiology of the human body systems, which include the heart, blood and circulatory system; the skeletal system; the muscular system; the sensation system, which includes the eye, ear and the sense of touch; the digestive system; and the urinary system. Each class will begin with a presentation of the anatomy and normal function of each system, followed by discussion of the effects of aging.

SPECIAL INTEREST GROUPS

Members may join these groups as their schedules permit and interest directs. They do not count toward your priority selections.

SX101 OPEN STUDIO— CONSULTATION

Thursdays, 1 p.m.–3:45 p.m.
Dates: 10 Sessions, February 2–April 6

The instructor can assist students who request support in the completion of their paintings in pastel or oil. Appointment with the instructor is necessary.

SX102 KNITTER'S SELF-HELP

Thursdays, 2:30 p.m.–3:45 p.m.
Dates: 10 Sessions, Feb 2–April 6

This course is designed for beginner through advanced knitters to work on projects or practice techniques. This is a good opportunity to get back to unfinished projects that have lingered in your knitting bag because you don't know what to do next or how to fix a problem. Participants will need to provide their own materials, tools and patterns.

SX103 THEATRE APPRECIATION GROUP

Tuesdays, 2:30 p.m.–3:45 p.m.
Dates: 10 Sessions, January 31–April 4

Explore elements of a play—namely, language, content, character development, set and costume—by means of script reading, discussion, guest speakers and field trips. Structure will be based upon the 2016-17 Resident Ensemble Players season which, this spring, includes The Elephant Man and Tartuffe.

SX104 SUDOKU

Wednesdays, 1 p.m.–2:15 p.m.
Dates: 10 Sessions, February 1–April 5

The object of Sudoku is to put the numbers 1–9 in every row, column and 3 x 3 square block. These puzzles can be tricky and confusing at first, but they really are not as complicated as they look. The key to success is to systematically apply a specific solving strategy. Have you ever wanted to solve a Sudoku puzzle but didn't know how to begin? Have you started one but then got stuck and gave up? Can you figure out easy puzzles, but just don't understand how anyone can complete a hard one? After joining this group, you will be well on your way to becoming an expert at solving any Sudoku puzzle. You don't need to know math, but you do need a lot of patience. Sudoku cannot be rushed, and one must be able to think logically.

SX105 SEATED EXERCISE

Wednesdays, 10:30 a.m.–11:45 a.m.
Dates: 10 Sessions, February 1–April 5

This video-based activity includes stretches and lightweight conditioning guided by a respected trainer who specializes in senior physical health. Sessions are used with increased intensity in succession. The hands, back, neck, arms and shoulders are targeted in each session. The program facilitator has had experience with this program for over 15 years.

Spring 2017 Instructors

Mike Apgar received an A.B. in geology from Rutgers and an M.S. in geology-geochemistry from Penn State. After a career as a geologist focused on groundwater issues in both consulting and in government roles, Mike has continued to pursue his interests in geology, history and religion in retirement. His course will address each of these fields.

Don Blakey is a retired public school administrator and university educator with more than 50 years of service in Delaware. He and his wife Dolores are the founders of DonDel Enterprises, Inc., a children's theatre company. A world traveler, Don specializes in life in East Africa, especially Kenya and Tanzania. His hobbies include writing, photography, languages and playing the ukulele.

Mary Boyd is an attorney and teacher of U.S. constitutional and education law. Her background includes business and finance and historic preservation.

Jim Brown has a degree in biochemistry and a juris doctor from Howard University. He is a certified teacher in the state of New York in the areas of biology, chemistry and general science. He is a retired lawyer and retired civil, federal and military judge. He served his country as a Vietnam combat veteran and a U.S. Army reservist.

Terry Bryan is a dentist with a mobile practice serving nursing care facilities, and a lifelong Delaware resident. He is a past member of several Delaware medical committees and current member of several numismatic and historical-interest organizations. Terry is a member of the Dover Symphony Orchestra, the Milford Community Band and other music groups. He is a dedicated collector of Delaware ephemera and antique sheet music and a frequent speaker on Delaware history topics. A number of his numismatic articles have appeared in national journals. He has presented previous Osher courses in Dover and Lewes.

Alice Cataldi's first language of literacy is French. As such, she is passionate about the subject matter she has taught for many years. She retired from the University of Delaware where she taught French and trained future teachers of languages. In addition to promoting the French language and culture, Alice enjoys travel, visiting museums, reading, gardening and cooking ethnic meals for family and friends. She is the recipient of numerous teaching and advocacy awards. In recognition of her contributions to the promotion of the French culture and language, the French government named Alice a Chevalier Knight of the Academic Palms.

George Christensen received a B.A. from the University of Hawaii in 1972 and an M.A. from the University of Delaware in 2012. He enlisted in the U.S. Navy in 1956 and completed 23 years' active duty, retiring in 1979 as a lieutenant commander. George worked for 10 years (1991-2001) as an R.N. in an acute care setting for hospice AIDS patients. He and his spouse, Steve, have lived in Dover for 15 years.

Jeff Cohen is a four-year graduate of Southern Illinois University with a B.A. in American history. He is a successful business executive, public speaker, mentor and parental coach. Most importantly he is the proud and "special" grandfather of two grandsons, Zach, five-and-a-half, Jacob, four months; and granddaughter Alex, two-and-a-half.

Russ Endo, a professional poet, received his B.A. in combined literature from Yale College. He obtained a juris doctor from the University of Pennsylvania Law School. Russ has been published in many publications including Journal of Biological Chemistry, American Friends Delegation Report on China after Tiananmen Square, American Poetry Review, The Antioch Review, Ploughshares and The Philadelphia Inquirer. His poem "Susumu, My Name" was the basis for a jazz orchestration by Sumi Tonooka that appeared on PBS. He currently sits on the boards of Wilmington Friends School and Greene Street Friends School in Philadelphia.

Kenneth Garber has an accounting degree from the Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania. He taught computerized accounting and bookkeeping to adults for a U.S. Department of Labor program. He is an Intuit QuickBooks pro-adviser with many years experience as a chief financial officer, treasurer and accountant for businesses, large and small.

Cade Gibson is a professional, mostly self-taught, watercolor artist. Prior to coming to OLLI she taught classes at the Modern Maturity Center.

James and Kay Greene. Jim taught the history of ideas at a very progressive school in New York City. Kay taught sixth grade science in Milford. Both love ideas, folly, bad logic and laughter. We will provide the cookies; you should provide your versions of the world.

Ray Hain is a retired Air Force officer and a retired engineer for a major aerospace company. His time in the Air Force was spent on active duty as a pilot and in the reserve as an engineer. Ray has been interested in airplanes since he was 12. He holds a B.S. in aeronautical engineering, an M.A. in military studies in airpower and an M.A. in philosophy. Ray has been involved with aerospace for 40 years.

Roger Hazzard received a B.A. in political science from American University in D.C. and an M.A. in psychology from Washington College in Chestertown, Md. He taught in the social studies department at Dover High School for 30 years. He also taught psychology and human development at Delaware Technical Community College Terry Campus, and general psychology for the University of Delaware. Roger is a self-described “enthusiastic amateur” photographer, thinks that photography is fun and hopes to convey that in his course.

Bob Heifetz received a B.A. in English/education and an M.A. from Queens College. He taught high school English in New York for five years and in Connecticut for 25 years, the American literature honors program for over 20 years, and English electives such as creative writing. Bob has participated in numerous poetry and book groups and taught the Bible as literature to church and synagogue adult groups. His hobbies include bicycling, hiking, kayaking and bird watching. He enjoys traveling and spending time with family and friends.

Elizabeth Jelich is a graduate of Wesley College and the University of Delaware, where she earned her bachelor’s and master’s degrees. Her deep Delaware roots enabled her to become a charter member of a local chapter of the Daughters of the American Colonists. During her 31 years of teaching, her passion was to instill in her students a lifelong love of history. Her teaching mission was to construct a classroom where history came alive.

Bill Jones is a graduate of Cornell University. He worked at DuPont for 31 years, first as an auditor and later in supply chain management. After retirement from DuPont, he worked with three consulting firms before managing his own change management consulting company. Now finally retired, Bill and his wife

Dot travel extensively. Besides the travel, Bill enjoys our natural environment, reading and history.

Ann Kemmerle earned a B.A. in speech correction from Douglass College and an M.Ed. from William Paterson University. She was an educator for 29+ years of mostly special education early learning and elementary aged children. Reading to children has always been her passion. She has been an active OLLI Dover member since 2010 and strongly believes in all the benefits that lifelong learning provides. She is a former OLLI Dover council member and is currently on the special events team.

Natasha Lambadiou is a nutrition educator for the Delaware State University Cooperative Extension Expanded Food Nutrition Education Program. The program seeks to build interactive relationships with the community with a focus on healthy lifestyles.

Sue Letavish’s career before retirement was a public school speech pathologist. She has always enjoyed children’s literature and now enthusiastically reads some of her favorite books to young children while in character as “The Reading Gypsy.”

Janet Manchester received a B.A. in French from the University of Delaware and an M.S. in environmental science from Drexel University. Janet retired from the Delaware Department of Natural Resources and Environmental Control, where she worked as an environmental scientist. She has been a long-time volunteer at Bombay Hook National Wildlife Refuge and has served as president and a board member of the Friends of Bombay Hook.

Kevin McGrath received a B.A. in history from Mt. Carmel College, Niagara Falls, Ontario. He retired as a human resources management professional, and has held management positions with ITT, Nortel Networks and Comshare. His interests include American history and reading.

Art McLaughlin holds B.A.s in both political science and art history and an M.A. in art history from the University of Delaware. He also holds an A.S. in respiratory therapy and an M.S. in community health and wellness administration. In addition, he is author of six textbooks on medically-related topics and also is a National League for Nursing approved college instructor in science.

Susan McLaughlin received her bachelor’s degree from the University of Delaware and a master of information sciences degree from the University of Pittsburgh. She worked as a systems analyst and programmer for the City of Pittsburgh before returning to Delaware. Susie has taught at Duquesne University, Robert Morris College, University of Pittsburgh and at Delaware Technical Community College for 22 years. She currently teaches courses at Wilmington University in the technology department.

Linda Medunick has attended OLLI art classes from the first day they were offered and began teaching in 2014. She has entered numerous juried art shows, won multiple ribbons and sold paintings. Her artistic journey has included the Norristown (Penn.) Art League; Brain Injury Association Art Club; Art Therapy Express Program, Inc.; Arts in the Estuary; and the Biggs Museum of American Art. Linda was recently inducted into the National League of American Pen Women. Linda has had a one-person show and participated in numerous live showcases demonstrating different mediums at the Dover Public Library. Her work was included in the first annual statewide OLLI art exhibit, and continues her enriching involvement in the OLLI Dover art program.

Doug Miller's career includes teaching fifth grade social studies and science in the Caesar Rodney School District. He has conducted communication/navigation equipment training for Dover Air Force Base reservists. Doug has served as a historical interpreter at the John Dickinson Plantation. His interest in American history stems from his children living near Valley Forge.

Jan Miller has over three years' experience teaching at the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at the University of Delaware. She came to the program in 2013 looking to take an art class and, after learning that there weren't any in Dover yet, proceeded to offer the Dover program's first art class. Jan has accumulated 55 years of study and practice in painting, has taken many college level classes and has taught general and private lessons in various venues. Jan worked at the Peninsula Regional Medical Center and Johns Hopkins as a registered radiologic technologist. She retired from Unitrack Industries as a computer drafter and programmer.

Carol Neild is a retired elementary teacher/reading specialist. She has been active in musical activities since childhood, singing and playing several instruments from choirs, school band and orchestra to community symphony. Nearly 30 years ago she became involved with early music and has attended numerous workshops as well as Pinewoods and Amherst Early Music weeks. As a founding member of the Holly Consort, weekly rehearsals and a few gigs a year continue this interest.

Dan Pritchett received a B.S. in social studies education from Concord College and an M.A. in American history from University of Delaware. Dan held a teaching position in the Capital School District, where he taught American history for 34 years. He later taught at Wilmington and Delaware State Universities. He is a member of the Lincoln Forum, one of the foremost national organizations dedicated to the study of Abraham Lincoln and his era.

Patrick Weaver was born in Hagerstown, Md., and raised in Boonsboro, Md., with close family connections to the Battle of Antietam. He graduated from Dover High School and served in the U.S. Navy from 1961 to 1965. Patrick earned a B.S. in economics from Delaware State University; and an M.S. in management from Wilmington College. He worked at Playtex Products, Inc., for 28 years, retiring in 2008 as an industrial engineering manager. He is currently involved with the Lions Club and Boy Scouts.
