

Welcome to the University of Delaware! My name is Brooks Raup and I am the Student Veteran Services Coordinator, a dedicated resource for student veterans and dependents on campus and online. I am prior service Army, previous student veteran and now the Student Veteran Services Coordinator here at the University of Delaware. My office is located in the University Visitor Center – Room 143.

My goal is to provide enrollment certification to the VA for payment both to you the student and to the university, support and encouragement for all students using VA education benefits at the University of Delaware and to be a resource to help students and parents with questions relating to VA benefits. If you are a prospective student, a student veteran, a dependent using VA education benefits, or a faculty or staff member working with student veterans, I am here to assist. In addition to assisting student veterans, dependents and parents with VA related questions I can also be used as a resource for any other questions or concerns that may arise during your career here at the University of Delaware. Please use me as a resource whenever and wherever you need assistance!

This is an exciting time to be a student, especially a student veteran, in higher education. Thank you for your service and the sacrifice your family has made. Your education benefits are earned by virtue of your honorable service and are a very sincere thank you from a grateful nation.

As a veteran myself, I understand that transitioning to higher education can be confusing and difficult at times. Please do not hesitate to contact me if there is anything I can do to help you be successful here at the University of Delaware. My door is always open as I encourage walk-ins to my office! Please feel free to contact me directly at any time, as I am always happy to help!

Sincerely,

Brooks Raup
