OPENING:
Chairman Sparks convened the meeting at 3 p.m. and welcomed all those in attendance. He extended a special welcome to Bill DiMondi and Chai Gadde, two new trustees recently appointed by Governor Markell.

Mr. Sparks requested a moment of silence in remembrance of friends of the University who had recently passed away. He then called on Ms. McDaniel for the attendance report.

On a motion made and seconded, the minutes of the Board’s meeting of December 9, 2014 were approved as presented in the Meeting Booklet.

REPORT ON ADMISSIONS AND ENROLLMENT MANAGEMENT:
Chris Lucier, vice president for enrollment management, presented a look at the 4,000-plus students projected to arrive on campus this fall as members of the Class of 2019. He noted that the Class of 2019 is expected to include 1,225 students from the First State and 2939 nonresidents, with the diversity of the entering class consistent with fall 2014.

Mr. Lucier noted a significant increase in the quality of the freshman class based on SAT scores and grade point averages. The average SAT is 14 points higher than last year and 35 points higher than two years ago, with the average GPA up from 3.62 to 3.68. Additionally, enrollment in UD’s Honors Program is also over the target, with 632 deposits and a forecast of approximately 620 students against a target of 525 students.

In addition, 400 students have made deposits for UD’s award-winning Associate in Arts Program, up from 284 in 2014 and slightly above 2012 and 2013.

Mr. Lucier added that two new programs launched in the 2014-15 academic year to diversify sources of new student enrollment also were successful. The World Scholars Program, where matriculated students will spend their first semester at John Cabot University in Rome and then return to Newark, will enroll 39 students, including 14 from Delaware. The Delaware in DC Program, where students admitted to the spring semester have an opportunity to spend their first semester at American University in Washington, D.C., will enroll 50 students.

While the University’s market positioning in terms of admissions is strengthening, Mr. Lucier cautioned against becoming complacent in the overall current enrollment environment. He noted that efforts must continue to provide an exceptional experience in and out of the classroom that leads to opportunities for UD’s students to get great jobs or enroll in superb graduate programs.
REPORTS OF THE PRESIDENT AND PROVOST:

In his final address to the trustees, Dr. Harker thanked members of the campus community for their contributions to UD’s continued success as a leading academic and research institution. He also lauded UD faculty and staff members and students for their wisdom, experience, hard work and enthusiasm. In thanking members of the UD family -- including alumni and friends -- for their encouragement, Dr. Harker also noted that serving as president of UD has been a privilege and the highlight of his career. Dr. Harker also recalled notable achievements during his tenure, including the creation of the first strategic plan, the Path to Prominence, launched in 2008, the construction of the Interdisciplinary Science and Engineering Laboratory and the acquisition of the 272-acre Science, Technology and Advanced Research (STAR) Campus. In closing, Dr. Harker expressed his appreciation to all who had supported his administration and aided in the accomplishments he had outlined. He concluded by expressing his confidence in UD to meet future challenges. Dr. Harker’s presentation was greeted with enthusiastic applause and a standing ovation by those assembled.

For the Provost’s Report, Dr. Grasso lauded Dr. Harker for his leadership, vision and support of the Delaware Will Shine strategic plan. He noted that a new strategic plan has been a major objective since he arrived on campus nearly two years ago. Dr. Grasso said that the process was to be open and inclusive, relying on the strengths and character of the University campus resources and the good people of the local and regional community. He described the new strategic plan as being without any prescribed time horizon, saying that the plan epitomizes the aspirations and the values of the UD community. He added that the plan is a framework for how we will build our community and invest in our future, relentlessly pursuing excellence as we tackle the grand challenges and the great debates of our times.

SPECIAL PRESENTATIONS:

Dr. James Jones, Professor of Psychology and Director of the University’s Center for the Study of Diversity, discussed scholarship that drives diversity practice. Dr. Jones noted that the most significant diversity challenges for UD are to increase admission and graduation of more diverse groups of students and to prepare all students to participate effectively in a more diverse society.

Sharelle Law, graduate assistant and doctoral candidate in the Department of Human Development and Family Studies, and Alexis Wiggins, undergraduate researcher and senior in the Department of Psychological and Brain Sciences, also shared their experiences working in the Center for the Study of Diversity.
Dr. Charlie Riordan, Deputy Provost for Research and Scholarship, outlined the results of the Delaware Will Shine strategic planning initiative.

He noted that the process included approximately 100 working group members, and numerous meetings with constituent groups on-and-off-campus. An interactive website and blog, concept papers and draft documents, and the inception of the Thought Leadership speaker series, were also part of the comprehensive process.

Dr. Riordan said that furthering UD’s reputation as a pre-eminent learner-centered research university calls for a commitment to emphasize learning, scholarship and engagement. Addressing grand challenges includes educating the global citizen, advancing cultural understanding and creative expression, bridging opportunity divides, building a sustainable economy, advancing health and wellness, innovating energy and environmental solutions and ensuring safety and security.

Dr. Riordan also noted that advancing the University will be achieved through five strategic initiatives, which include building a welcoming and collaborative campus community, innovative education design, multidisciplinary research and scholarship, campus safety and wellness, and community engagement.

CHAIRMAN’S REMARKS AND SPECIAL RECOGNITIONS:
Board Chairman A. Gilchrist Sparks III noted at the conclusion of the meeting that, by sheer coincidence, Dr. Harker’s term as president and his term as board chair will both end on June 30. As his term as Board Chair comes to a close, Mr. Sparks shared his perspective on several issues, including the challenges that UD will face in meeting the challenges of the electronic age and delivery of content. Mr. Sparks added that he hopes the faculty and next president will be able to work together to address this challenge in a nimble way that positions UD as a leader, not a follower.

Mr. Sparks also noted the increasing public concern with the rising cost of education, and recognized UD’s efforts to reduce the percentage of increases in tuition and fees and to contain costs without sacrificing the things that make the University special.

In regards to diversity, Mr. Sparks said that notwithstanding all that has been done, much remains to be done in this critical area if UD is to remain relevant in the years to come.

Mr. Sparks expressed appreciation to his fellow trustees for their support over the years he has served as Chair.

Mr. Sparks then introduced a video tribute to Dr. Harker, after which he invited Dr. and Mrs. Harker to join him at the podium. He then read into the record the two resolutions to honor Dr. Harker: one naming him as President Emeritus and Distinguished Professor Emeritus of Civil and Environmental Engineering and one naming the ISE Lab in his honor. On a motion made and seconded, the two resolutions were approved as presented.

Mr. Sparks also expressed appreciation to Mrs. Harker “for her willingness over the years to pull herself away from her own career to attend and add luster to countless UD functions.” The Board and assembled audience greeted the Harkers with enthusiastic applause and a standing ovation. In closing Mr. Sparks noted that “President Harker has challenged us to look to and understand the future of higher education, and to look well beyond our borders in cultivating our success in meeting that future.”

REPORT ON GOVERNMENT RELATIONS:
    Mr. Deadwyler provided an update on state and local government relations, including:
    • Challenges ahead for the DE General Assembly include operating shortfalls due to unstable and unsustainable revenue streams;
    • Increased costs for State-supported efforts in public education, healthcare, and corrections have pushed higher education lower on the list of priorities.

    The Government Relations staff continues its focus on the following efforts:
    • Legislative Monitoring Program – since its launch in January 2015, over 400 pieces of legislation have been shared with subject matter experts on campus (administration and faculty); the program has helped to raise awareness across the University of legislative matters; the program allows UD to be well-positioned for proactive/early response on legislative matters;
• Efforts also continue for enhanced communications and outreach to members of the DE Legislature with a focus on building new relationships and strengthening existing relationships with policymakers.

Mr. Deadwyler also reviewed:
• priority bills from the 148th General Assembly with impact to UD;
• targeted communication materials which update UD’s impact on the State of Delaware;
• enhancements to the Government Relations website;
• efforts to showcase UD impact in individual House and Senate districts;
• efforts to develop the 3rd party voice of alumni, students, trustees and business leaders to help deliver the UD message to legislators;
• continued engagement activities including alumni events and programs and government relations events.

Mr. Deadwyler also discussed the role of government relations in the efforts to increase diversity on campus.

Several suggestions were generated as part of the discussion for ways in which faculty, students, alumni and community leaders can be helpful:
• A faculty liaison to be identified with the help of the Provosts and the Deans;
• Possible opportunities with State Commissions where faculty could share their expertise;
• Strategic efforts with students in public policy or agriculture to help raise awareness of what the topics of interest are in the Delaware legislature;
• Seek ways to engage graduate students due to the time they spend in Delaware and often remain in Delaware after graduation.

Ms. Anderson presented a report on Federal government relations, with the following highlights:
• A review of FY16 appropriations and concerns about spending caps and debt ceiling;
• Federal Relations activities, including campus visits for Congressional staff, a meeting at the Treasury Department on the UD Cyber Initiative; a higher education and diversity meeting President Targett and Senator Coons;
• A review of the Champions of Science breakfast where President Targett was one of three academic leaders to speak to a crowd of 200 guests with 13 Congressional members in attendance;
Updates on several legislative matters including Campus Safety & Accountability Act, Higher Education Re-Authorization Act and Immigration Reform;

REPORT FROM THE OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS AND PUBLIC AFFAIRS: Ms. Hayes provided an overview of work within the Office of Communications and Public Affairs (OCPA) focused on the University’s digital presence. She noted that UD’s digital vision is to increase engagement and encourage dialog by providing a distinctive experience with clear pathways to find information on a more integrated multiplatform website that is accessible from smartphones, tablets and desktops. Ms. Hayes noted that the University’s website is being revamped, and she shared images of the current view of the website and how the new website pages will appear. With respect to content and distribution, efforts will be focused on aligning the messaging with the institution’s goals, ensure data-driven decisions, and meet the target audiences on their preferred platform, e.g. social media or the UD website. Ms. Hayes noted that the new website design is expected to be launched in the first quarter of 2016.

Mr. Grant asked Ms. Hayes to work with Provost Grasso, Mr. Lucier, and Mrs. Taylor Lotty to develop a plan to better promote UD with current resources and provide an estimate of necessary resources going forward. A report was requested for the Spring 2016 meeting on this matter. Provost Grasso noted that Mr. Lucier is currently working with OCPA regarding a new UD branding campaign.

REPORT AND UPDATE ON DEVELOPMENT AND ALUMNI RELATIONS (DAR): Mrs. Taylor Lotty noted that the meeting materials included updates on the development efforts generally for the University and specifically for the Colleges and other focus areas. She encouraged the trustees to review the materials and to contact her team with any questions.

Mrs. Taylor Lotty discussed how DAR is actively engaged in planning the public phase of the comprehensive campaign, titled With A Daring Spirit Bold. She noted that the goal for the campaign is very ambitious but we are presently about 61% toward the goal. The public phase of the campaign will be deferred until a new President has been announced, and she expects that campaign efforts and the activities for the Presidential rollout will be a somewhat combined effort.
Mrs. Taylor Lotty noted that trustee input through direct assistance, suggestions, and recommendations is invited and encouraged as the process continues.

RESOLUTION FOR APPROVAL:
Mr. Grant called the Committee’s attention to the resolution included in the Meeting Booklet to recognize the generosity of individual donors.

On a motion made and seconded, the Committee approved the resolution as presented.

ADJOURNMENT:
With no additional business, the meeting was adjourned at approximately 3:20 p.m. for an Executive Session.

RESOLUTION FOR APPROVAL:
On a motion made and seconded, the following resolution was approved:

RESOLVED, to recognize the personnel actions (new tenurable appointments, emeritus appointments, and appointments to named professorships) presented in the October 16, 2015, meeting booklet of the Trustee Committee on Academic Affairs.

CALL TO ORDER:
Mr. Borel convened the meeting at 10 a.m. and welcomed all in attendance.

REMARKS AND UPDATES:
Dr. Targett shared that she and Dr. Newton have been meeting with many students and members of the faculty. She has received very positive feedback and plans to maintain a very visible presence on campus.

Provost Grasso shared several updates:
- Interim Appointments for the current academic year: Dr. Lynn Okagaki is serving as Interim Deputy Provost and Dr. Ann Ardis is serving as Interim Vice Provost for Graduate and Professional Education and searches for these two positions are currently underway;
- A search is being conducted for a new Librarian following the recent retirement of Susan Brynteson;
- Dr. Carol Henderson is working on the “Diversity Blueprint” and a full update will be provided to the Committee at its Spring 2016 meeting;
- Negotiations will soon begin for the new faculty contract;
- A new budget model will be launched this year for the academic components of the University;
- Promotion and tenure decisions are moving forward with new standards incorporated;
- Four new on-line program are being launched in the spring with Wiley, our on-line program partner;
- Additional programs are being added for admissions options including an entrepreneurship affinity program, a first-year program in Madrid and a cyber security affinity program;
- The Ambassador for Japan will be visiting the campus in the next week to explore economic development opportunities.

REVISION OF ADMISSION STANDARDS:
Mr. Lucier introduced Dr. Zander for a report on the proposed revision of admission standards.
Under shared governance at the University of Delaware, the undergraduate admission guidelines are established by the Faculty Senate and utilized by the Admissions Office, an office under the Provost, to make admission decisions. From time to time, an ad hoc committee is established to review existing guidelines and to make recommendations for changes, if needed.

In December 2014, Provost Grasso established an Undergraduate Admission Guidelines Committee (AGC) with the charge “to review and assess our current undergraduate admission (first year and transfer) guidelines and present recommended revisions to the guidelines to the Undergraduate Studies Committee of the Faculty Senate”.

Dr. Zander provided an overview of the AGC’s work:

- From December 2014 through June 2015, the AGC met regularly to understand the current practices of the Office of Undergraduate Admissions as well as comparable institutions; to gather and analyze pertinent data to evaluate current practices; and, based on what was learned, to formulate recommendations to modify undergraduate admission guidelines.
- Chief among the AGC’s consideration is maintaining academic excellence while serving students; conditions that currently shape the admissions landscape include the changing demographics of the population; the interest in achieving a more diverse incoming class; special attention to applicants from Delaware; and, enhancing social responsibility among first year students.
- As part of its work, the AGC considered the role of standardized tests, the SAT and ACT, in the admissions process. There is extensive evidence to suggest that the tests can act as a potential barrier to access for certain populations of students, particularly low-income, first-generation and students of color. Since these are populations UD is particularly interested in serving, especially those from the state of Delaware, this was perceived to be an important area of focus.
- An analysis of UD’s own data revealed that SAT scores are not uniquely useful as a predictor of success for Delaware residents enrolled at the Newark campus. Equally predictive, and, in some cases, more predictive, is the high school grade point average. Combining high school GPA with SAT does not result in a stronger predictor at UD. More than 800 Universities and four-year colleges have now switched to an SAT/ACT-optional application process. Evidence shows that making the admission process SAT-optional did not lower the first year GPA or the four-year graduation rate. In fact, in most cases the SAT profile increased at the institutions that chose an SAT optional path.
After reviewing the literature, hearing from a variety of subject matter experts, and empirically analyzing variables that might predict student success at UD, the AGC drafted a series of preliminary recommendations:

1. Operate a four-year pilot program for Delaware residents for which the submission of SAT or ACT scores is optional. Gather data on the pilot group, such as performance in the major, retention rates, and general academic performance. Upon review of data, the AGC may recommend (as early as at the two-year point) expanding the program to all incoming freshmen applications, in-state and out-of-state.

2. Engage with faculty and each College across UD to determine if and how alternative predictive measures might improve our admission process.

3. Maintain a standing committee on undergraduate admissions to follow the data over the next two to four years and make recommendations as/when needed. Rotate leadership and membership, without jeopardizing continuity, to get more faculty involved in the process.

4. Continue internal and external discussions on the use of non-cognitive variables in the evaluation process.

5. Ensure that there exists a strong support system for the incoming students, especially for students from underrepresented groups.

Dr. Zander noted that no action on this matter is required by the Trustee Committee at this time. The recommendations of the AGC will be forwarded to the Undergraduate Studies Committee of the Faculty Senate later this fall, and the Undergraduate Studies Committee will determine what recommendations will go forward to the full Faculty Senate.

IMPLEMENTATION OF “DELAWARE WILL SHINE:”
Dr. Riordan provided a report on the implementation of UD’s new strategic plan, Delaware Will Shine (DWS). Highlights included:

- An Implementation Committee, which reports to the Provost and is co-chaired by Dr. Lynn Okagaki and Dr. Charlie Riordan, will provide guidance and oversight to five Action Teams.
- Each Action Team is aligned with one of the Strategic Initiatives and responsible for implementation and assessment of their Priority Recommendations as delineated in DWS. The Action Teams will be fully staffed and operational by mid-October.
- The Implementation Committee will establish a timeline for action, provide units across campus with guidance to frame their work in alignment with the Strategic Plan and develop an accountability process for meeting goals.

- Each Action Team will “map” each of the seven Grand Challenges to the specific action items in their Strategic Initiatives. To achieve this goal, the Action Team will ensure its Priority Recommendations position UD’s graduate and multidisciplinary academic structure, including resources and policies, to best provide solutions to society’s most pressing sustainable energy and environmental challenges. Similarly, this Action Team will map its work to the other six Grand Challenges.
- The Action Teams will continually review and assess progress using the metrics and benchmarks outlined in DWS and by establishing new metrics as appropriate.

Dr. Riordan noted that a key aspect of DWS is to effectively communicate UD’s institutional values and priorities with a wide range of stakeholder groups. Work is underway in collaboration with Communications and Public Affairs to develop a communication strategy for the implementation phase. Acting President Targett and Provost Grasso will be hosting multiple town halls and other forums on campus this semester to communicate the UD’s recent progress and priorities for the coming academic year.

REVISION OF THE ACADEMIC PROGRAM REVIEW:

Dr. Okagaki provided an overview of the Academic Program Review (APR), the process through which academic departments and programs assess the quality of their teaching, research, and engagement activities; evaluate the effectiveness of their use of resources; and determine their progress toward meeting the unit’s goals, as well as those of the University of Delaware.

Revisions to the APR process have been developed to ensure that each department is aligning priorities with the DWS strategic plan. The APR process includes both self-study and external review, and provides units with the opportunity to assess their strengths, challenges, and opportunities.

To improve APRs, the proposed process will now include:
- a standard package of data prepared by the Office of Institutional Research and Effectiveness (information on undergraduate and graduate students including average high school GPA, undergraduate retention, graduation rates, degrees granted);
- In addition, data from Academic Analytics, an organization that provides business intelligence data for research universities, will be used to assess faculty productivity (e.g., faculty publications, grants, awards). Academic Analytics data will also be used to compare the productivity of the department to comparable units in the public institutions of the Association of American Universities (AAU);

- The dean of the college and the deputy provost for academic affairs will determine the composition of the external review team; external reviewers will include leaders in their discipline to be identified and whenever possible, faculty from AAU institutions should be included;
- Faculty will be required to articulate plans to improve their department without new resources, as the goal is to encourage units to be more strategic in their activities, to eliminate programs that have low impact are no longer high priorities, and to become more cost effective.

REVIEW OF FACULTY AND PROFESSIONAL PERSONNEL ACTIONS:

The Committee reviewed the personnel actions outlined in the meeting booklet, including new tenurable appointments, emeritus appointments, and appointments to named professorships.

Dr. Hastings noted one correction to the list, which will be recorded as appropriate. On a motion made and seconded, the Committee approved a resolution to recognize those actions as outlined.

ACADEMIC PROGRAM RESOLUTIONS:

There were no academic program resolutions brought forward for the Committee’s approval.

RESOLUTIONS AMENDING POSITION TITLE IN PRIOR BANKING RESOLUTIONS:
Mr. Oler reviewed the proposed changes to two banking resolutions to reflect changes to titles of senior management authorized to perform banking duties on behalf of the University (with track changes as indicated with bolding and strike-through). Following review, on a motion made and seconded, the Committee approved the resolutions as presented.

REPORT OF THE INVESTMENT VISITING COMMITTEE AND STATUS OF OTHER INVESTMENTS:
Mr. Walter provided an update on the endowment portfolio and several aspects of endowment status and performance. He noted that as of 8/31/15, UD’s endowment portfolio had achieved a market value of $1.49 billion. He noted that UD has the sixth largest endowment per student among large universities.

Mr. Walter reported that the endowment’s net performance for FY2015 was +4.2%, compared to +5.2% for the custom benchmark. He noted that, given the low interest rate environment and slow economic growth rate environment, returns are expected to continue to be in the +0% to +10% range for FY2016.

Mr. Walter also reviewed the asset allocation of the endowment relative to the custom benchmark, and noted that the fund is currently slightly underweight in its allocation to global equities at 44% with a target of 45%. The University continues to work with Hamilton Lane in identifying new and better performing funds that will help the endowment to achieve the 25% target allocation for private investments. Mr. Walter noted that it will take some time to achieve this target because of the less liquid nature of these investments.

REPORT ON INSURANCE/COVERAGE AND RATES:
Mr. Stokes provided a report on insurance coverage and rates. He noted that the outlook for the US insurance market is generally favorable amid ample capacity and intense competition among insurers. The general softening of property and casualty markets is expected to continue, barring unforeseen catastrophic losses. The University, however, is somewhat isolated from the insurance markets cycles.

With respect to general liability insurance, Mr. Stokes noted that, with the addition of the STAR campus and the increase in total operating revenues, the University’s risk exposure has grown. As a result, the University’s limit of excess insurance has increased from $100 million to $125 million, at an annual cost of $37,750.

The University’s Trustee and Officers Liability insurance coverage remains with National Union. This year, competitive bids were obtained for this line of insurance. The bid from United Educators was reviewed relative to that provided by the current underwriter regarding price and coverage. Working with the Office of General Counsel, it was determined that the current underwriter provided a more comprehensive program.

The University’s primary property insurance is underwritten through the State of Delaware to a limit of $2 million. The State provides Basic Form property insurance, a named peril policy, including coverage for the following perils:

- Fire
- Lightning
- Explosion
- Windstorm or Hail
- Smoke
- Sprinkler Leakage
- Aircraft or vehicles

The University purchases commercial property insurance through FM Global (FM), a mutual insurance company with an A.M. Best rating of A+ (Superior). FM provides all risk coverage for losses in excess of or not otherwise covered by the State. Mr. Stokes noted that Flood and wind loss exposures at the Lewes campus presented some challenges for the current renewal with FM. The market was tested but no other underwriters were able to offer a competitive bid. Work is ongoing to mitigate these risks. Once these steps are complete, FM will reevaluate its exposure and suggest a plan to continue to provide coverage. Stepped premium increases over multiple years is expected.

The Owner Controlled Insurance Program was successful with insurance costs decreased by approximately $2.1 million.

The Master Builders Risk Insurance program provides property insurance for select new construction and renovation projects. Currently, the only project insured under this program is the MRI facility. The South Academy Street Residence Hall project will be added to the policy once construction begins.

FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE OVERVIEW – FY2015:
Ms. Zerenner reported that the fiscal 2015 annual audit of the University’s consolidated financial statements was completed on schedule. The audit report contained an unmodified opinion.

The members of the Committee on Finance received a brief overview of fiscal 2015 balance sheet fluctuations. The most significant item was a $150 million increase in the post-employment benefit liability. This was due to two factors. First, the University implemented updated mortality tables issued by the Society of Actuaries. Additionally, the University recorded an actuarially determined liability for the faculty retirement “2-year” benefit detailed in the Collective Bargaining Agreement. Previously the University had been recording the expense for this benefit on a pay-as-you-go basis.

The Committee members also received a brief overview of operating revenues and operating expenses for fiscal 2015.

ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE DELINQUENCIES:
Mr. Oler reviewed delinquencies over 90 days past due from tuition, room and board, library and parking fines, noting that all were fairly routine. He reviewed a summary of student accounts receivable write-offs and net bad debt expense since March 1, 2015, noting that the EVP had authorized the write-off of 104 uncollectible accounts aggregating $246,999 and the President had authorized the write-off of one (1) uncollectible account of $10,885. Mr. Oler also reviewed past due miscellaneous receivables, noting that since March 1, 2015, the EVP had authorized the write-off of seven (7) uncollectible accounts aggregating $25,052.

Under Sponsored Program Receivables, Mr. Oler reported that since April 14, 2015, the EVP has authorized the write-off of five (5) uncollectible accounts aggregating $25,466, and the President has authorized the write-off of one (1) uncollectible account of $19,649.

Mr. Oler reviewed three (3) uncollectible accounts recommended for write-off, noting that given the age of the related invoices, management does not feel that additional collection efforts would be beneficial:
- $60,000 from a state agency related to invoices dated March 2010.
- $21,743 from a state agency related to invoices dated prior to January 2011.
- $25,125 from a federal agency related to invoices dated prior to February 2009.
Following review, on a motion made and seconded, these accounts were approved for write-off as recommended.

STUDENT LOAN DEFAULT RATES:
The Committee received information on default rates for Perkins Program loans, Nursing Program loans, and Federal Direct Loans. All relatively low compared to peers and national averages.

GIFTS:
The meeting materials included a report on Details of Gifts Received during the period of July 1, 2014 through June 30, 2015. No gifts with undue financial obligations were noted.

DAVIS TRUST RESOLUTION:
The Committee reviewed the recommendation on the Edward C. Davis Trust for FY2017, which provides scholarship and operational support for the Department of Civil Engineering. On a motion made and seconded, the Committee approved the resolution for the FY2017 disbursement, as outlined in the meeting materials.

RECOMMENDATIONS ON ENDOWMENTS:
Mr. Oler reported that, between March and August of 2015, the University of Delaware received cumulative gift distributions from the Edward C. Brown Trust in the amount of $677,051 “for the express purpose of providing scholarships and fellowships to University of Delaware agriculture students in memory of the Edward C. Brown Family.” The University of Delaware proposes to create a Fund Functioning as Endowment with the income to be used to support scholarships and fellowships in the College of Agriculture and Natural Resources. Following review, on a motion made and seconded, the Committee approved the accompanying resolution.

ADJOURNMENT:
With no additional business, the meeting was adjourned at 2:50 p.m. for an Executive Session.
